BASEBALL FEVER GETS 'EM YOUNG

With the major leagues going into full swing today, many a bigtime manager might wish his hired help would swing at the ball as lustily (without losing their pants) as Stevie Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gorman of 80 Harriet way, Mill Valley, does in this photo. Steve, who won't be 4 years old until May 10, is a little too small for even the midget leagues, but that doesn't stop him from swinging at 'em, his mother declared.

GATE BRIDGE TRAFFIC SETS MARCH RECORD

The largest number of vehicles ever to cross the Golden Gate Bridge during March set a record last month.

With practically no rain during the month, traffic increased 14.4 per cent over March, 1958, and brought 14.8 per cent more revenue than a year ago.

A total of 1,479,476 vehicles crossed the bridge during the month, more than 180,000 higher than a year ago.

Total revenue reached $376,315, almost $50.000 more than in March a year ago.

Realty Dealer Kiewert Faces Forgery Count

Charles L. Kiewert, Corte Madera real estate broker who is now in Southern California, faces two counts of forgery involving $29,000, in a complaint filed by Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich yesterday.

Inspector Donald Midyett of the district attorney's office, who investigated the case, said he is conferring with Kiewert's attorney, John Rockwell, to have Kiewert return to Marin. If Kiewert does not come voluntarily, an arrest warrant will be sent to Southern California, Midyett said. Bail is set at $5,000.

Kiewert is accused of forging the name of a partner in the Lakeside Development Co. of Corte Madera on a $14,535 check on Oct. 23, 1957, and a $14,830 check on Jan: 6, 1958. Ralph Tobener, John W. Rentz and Olaf Johnson are partners in Lakeside Development Co., developers of Madera Gardens.

The checks represented escrow money from Transwestern Title Co. of San Rafael, made out to Lakeside Development Co., Midyett said.

The partners in the development contend Kiewert worked for them until July, 1958, but he had no authorization to sign Tobener's name to any of the checks and to deposit the money in his own name.

Kiewert resigned from the Marin County Real Estate Board last August about the time the state insurance commissioner began looking into his activities.

Bridge Board Votes To Cut Commute Toll

Reverses Earlier Decision To Up Rates On July 1

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today changed their minds and decided to reduce, rather than increase, the commuter tolls July 1.

Directors approved sale of a $9 commute book which will contain 52 one-way tickets. This will make the rate 17.3 cents per trip as compared with the 17.5 cents per trip the commuters are paying now.

Earlier, the directors had approved a 50-trip book at the same price which would have cost the commuters 18 cents a trip. Announcement of that increase had brought cries of protest.

Bids for furnishing the tickets were opened this morning. Only one company, A. Kimball Co., San Francisco. made a bid for printing of the tickets. It made a typographical error which showed that although 95,600 tickets would cost 15.8 cents per book, the total bid was only $108.

Since no other company submitted a bid, however, the board agreed to let Kimball amend its bids "if it can be done legally." A Kimball representative said the total should have been $15,712.80.

BREAKS DOWN ON ARREST

Housewife Caught In Check Swindle

A young blonde housewife from Sebastopol, who cooked up a neat $3,700 forgery scheme to provide for her four children, broke down and cried in a Novato bank yesterday noon when caught by Marin County sheriff's deputies.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos credited Inspectors Guido Battaglia and Bowen Bridges and Sgt. Edward Levine with cracking what might have been one of the neatest swindles ever pulled by an amateur in these parts.

Mrs. Carole Ann Evans, 28, wife of a Sonoma County music teacher, was taken to Sonoma County Jail from the Central Valley National Bank in Novato.

If the woman, using the alias Janice Wallace, had cashed the check in Novato, she may well have gone quietly back to her role as housewife, leaving a car agency in Santa Rosa holding the bag, according to inspectors.

Battaglia got this account from the sobbing woman:

She lay awake all night Wednesday worrying about bills; then the scheme popped into her head. Yesterday morning she forged a $3,700 check, using the name of a distant relative, and made it out to Janice Wallace. With her children in her car, she drove to Santa Rosa, bought a can of hair spray and changed her blonde tresses to brownish-red. She bought a straw hat with cloth on both sides to partially cover her features.

She walked into Vesper Motors in Santa Rosa and bought a second hand car for $1,667, getting a $2,033 check as change. It was drawn on the Novato bank. The car was to be picked up later.

About the time Mrs. Evans was driving to the Novato bank, the car agency discovered the forgery. At 12:15 p.m. Sonoma flashed word of the check. Battaglia notified all Marin banks.

At 12:45 p.m., assistant cashier Wayne C. Hathaway of Novato called the sheriff to report that a woman was at the counter with the check. Sergeant Levine of the Novato office was dispatched, and kept the woman under surveillance as the cashier stalled.

Inspectors Battaglia and Bridges walked in about 10 minutes later and found her still at the counter. "Are you Janice Wallace?" Battaglia asked. She was.

Battaglia said when he arrested her, she broke down.

She is the wife of Robert Evans, a Sebastopol music instructor.

She later told officers it was the first time she had tried such a thing. She was not going back to pick up the car. She merely wanted to take the $2,033, pay off the bills, and go back to her role of housewife and mother.

COUNTY REJECTS NOVATO CITY MAP

Incorporation Petitions Held Up Until More Detailed One Can Be Presented

Petitions seeking the incorporation of Novato will be delayed until a more detailed map of the proposed city is offered the county boundary commission.

The commission, meeting today at the courthouse, rejected the map presented by the Novato Home Rule Committee, but indicated it will set up a special meeting to consider a better map as soon as one is ready.

A more comprehensive map was requested by commission members George Steele, head of the county's central mapping service, and Marvin W. Brigham, director of public works.

Steele said he found a few small errors in the map. "I suggest a new map that will more clearly show what the map contains, and to show boundaries more clearly," he said.

"Such maps," Brigham added, "need a lot of care because the Novato map will be used so much in the future by a city council. The map should not only be legally correct but visually correct."

Clark Palmer, chairman of the Home Rule Committee, said he would hesitate to make a ground survey because the committee doesn't have the money. "But," he added, "we don't want to cut any corners. We want it to last."

Brigham moved, and the commission agreed, that the map should be referred back to the Novato committee for inclusion of more details, setting forth all established lines of record, and that the committee representatives consult with Steele for guidance in preparing a map and description. He added that all principal streets and subdivisions should be clearly indicated. Palmer said he was satisfied with this.

The map must be approved by the commission before petitions can be circulated for an incorporation election.

Final say on the map will be up to the board of supervisors. The commission's job is to see to it that future city lines will be accurate and conform with lines of other service and tax districts.

CLEAR SKIES DUE HERE FOR NEXT 5 DAYS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The chance for April showers appears dim for Northern California during the next five days, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

According to the bureau's five-day extended forecast, the northern half of the state will have clear weather except for the possibility of brief light rain in the extreme north early next week. Temperatures should be above or near normal.

Skies will be fair in the Bay Area through tomorrow with high morning fog near the ocean.

Winds will be westerly at 8 to 18 miles per hour.

Churchill To Visit Ike Next Month

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) -- The White House announced today that former British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill will visit President Eisenhower for three days in May.

The British leader, who has a long-standing invitation to visit his old friend of World War II, was forced to cancel a trip to Washington last year because of illness.

President and Mrs. Eisenhower will have Churchill as their White House guest May 4-5-6, and on May 7 Sir Winston will move to the British Embassy for one night there before leaving Washington.

Two Marin Youths Admit Crime Spree

Two San Rafael youths, who armed themselves with chains and sawed-off shotguns in a three-month spree of automobile and gasoline thefts, confessed to the crimes in Marysville, sheriff's deputies disclosed last night.

Thomas G. Brown, 19, of 51 Grove street and his 17-year-old companion Merle Harry Hicklin of 627 Gallerita way, are accused of car thefts and using stolen credit cards to buy gasoline, tires and oil.

They were arrested by Marysville police on suspicion of vagrancy and carrying concealed weapons—a dagger and two "slungshots," (lengths of chain with tape on one end and bolts or lead shots on the other).

Last month, Sheriff's Deputy A. V. Menjou picked up the pair in Santa Venetia because they had sawed-off shotgun-pistols with them. The weapons were confiscated and the youths were released. But Menjou later found a gasoline credit card made out to Theodore W. Waters, Sausalito game warden, in the back seat of his car.

Menjou concluded that the credit card must have been left in his car by the youths. A check showed that Waters' car had been stolen from Sausalito last January, and his credit cards had been in the car.

When the youths were picked up in Marysville, Inspector Guido Battaglia went there to see if he could clear up the rash of car and tire thefts. After hours of questioning, Brown and Hicklin confessed.

They said they stole at least three cars and drove around on gasoline bought with the credit cards. Each time they went to buy gasoline, tires or oil, they would steal a license plate to put on their car. From January through March, they roamed from Sunnyvale to Eureka on free gasoline, getting free tires and other parts for their own cars.

College Board Meets Secretly As 3 Resign

The Marin Junior College District board went into secret session last night and emerged with the resignations of three College of Marin teachers.

But Ward H. Austin, college president, said today the resignations were accepted in open meeting.

No one from the public was present when the board concluded its executive session, but it reconvened openly to accept the resignations of Frederick Thon, Dr. Emily Philbrick and Mrs. Molly P. Irwin, said Austin.

They were not dismissals, he emphasized, but routine resignations.

"We talked about hiring some other people during the executive session, but no decisions were reached," the college president said.

Austin gave no reason for

The Marin County Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. Monday to consider the 1959-60 budgets for the county school services funds and special classes.

The meeting will be held in the office of the county superintendent of schools at 317 Fourth street, San Rafael.

U. S. Levels New Charge At Hopps

The complicated financial life of Belvedere millionaire Stewart B. Hopps has cropped up in the courts again.

A brochure outlining the condition of a Tangier insurance company planned by Hopps is charged with containing false financial statements.

The charge is in a bill of particulars filed yesterday by the U.S. attorney's office in the Federal District Court in Baltimore.

U.S. CHARGE

The brochure was prepared by Hopps and attorney J. W. Ehrlich of Corte Madera for prospective customers of the international Guaranty and Insurance Co., the federal government charges.

International Guaranty is the firm of which California assets were ordered liquidated last December by a superior court judge in San Francisco.

Judge Preston Devine ordered liquidation of assets with a claimed value of about $1,100,000. State action against the firm was based on a charge that the firm was operating in California without a license.

In January, an eight-million-dollar damage suit against Hopps was dismissed in Marin Superior Court. The suit had been filed by the receivers of Rhode Island Insurance Co. A $170,000 settlement in the case was accepted last November in a Rhode Island court.

FALSE STATEMENTS

In the present involvement over the brochure, the bill of particulars charges that balance sheet statements are false,

Incumbent George G. Washburn of 19 Bank street, San Anselmo, has filed for re-election to the Marin Junior College District board.

AF Opens Office For Boom Claims

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —The Air Force, whose supersonic jet planes broke windows and jangled nerves with sonic booms earlier this week, opened a damage claims desk today in the Federal Building.

A dozen persons filed claims in the first hour. They dealt with broken windows, glassware and cracked plaster.

One of the first claimants was Mrs. George Stroud of 40 Crecienta lane, Sausalito. She said a plate glass door of her china cabinet was shattered.

Marin Housing Agency Chief Accused By Wife Of Battery

Bert Klahn, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority, is to appear in Palo Alto-Mountain View Municipal Court on Monday to answer a charge of battery entered by his wife.

Klahn was arrested by Palo Alto police Wednesday night at his home at 776 Garland drive, Palo Alto, after Mrs. Eleanor Klahn called officers to report her husband kicked her twice after returning home from a round of drinking.

Police quoted Klahn as saying he kicked Mrs. Klahn only after she hit him. Police said there were tooth marks on Klahn's arm but he did not require first aid.

The housing director, who commutes daily from his Palo Alto home to his Marin City job, was released on $50 bail after being booked at the Palo Alto police station.

She'll Just Have To Learn To Get Along With Bugs

Ross town councilmen last night expressed sympathy for Mrs. George J. Stapleton of 45 Willow avenue, who complained that her home was "crawling with beetles," but turned down her request that a city-owned tree be chopped down to rid her of the pests.

The insects have been breeding in the tree on the street near her house and then beating a path to her door, she protested in a letter read to the council.

"In the first place," said Mayor Arthur Kanzee, "these are not beetles, they are box elders; and secondly, if we take down that tree, they will probably just spread to other nearby trees."

Councilmen James McNab and Harry C. Scott revealed that they had "succeeded in capturing some of them alive," and had sent them to University of California to find out how the pests might be done away with.

"The University specialists replied that the bugs feed mainly on elm, maple and fruit trees and may be eliminated "only by direct contact," they said.

"We can't kill off every maple, elm and fruit tree in the area just to get rid of some bugs," protested Scott.

McNab added: "If you have to have bugs, these are not bad looking bugs."

The council ordered City Clerk W. W. Cole to answer Mrs. Stapleton's letter, reporting what has been learned about the bugs.

Sunbather Told To Stay In His Own Town

A "nude couple," strolling among the trees of San Rafael Hill in plain view of St. Raphael's School children, turned out to be a San Francisco man in an improvised "Bikini" basking in the Marin sun.

San Rafael police found John Gligov Kisich, 66, of San Francisco yesterday on the hill off Robert Dollar drive. Officers Carl Selby and Thomas Cheetham said the man wore shorts rolled up into the form of a Bikini. Police looked around for a woman reported seen on the hill by school children, but could not find her.

Officers told Kisich to do his sunbathing in his own home town.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Fire Bugs Sought

BENTON, Tenn. (AP)—With the help of light rain, firefighters today gained control of a big blaze, apparently started intentionally, that threatened the southern end of the big Cherokee National Forest.

Estimates of burned land ranged from 1,000 to 2,000 acres.

The raging blaze in the southeast corner of Tennessee near the North Carolina and Georgia borders was believed by rangers to have been set by a firebug. The rangers asked the FBI to help investigate.

At least 15 deliberate "sets" were discovered during the afternoon and early evening, Int-Hout reported.

Nye To Go On Trial

HAVANA (AP)—Alan Robert Nye of Whiting, Ind., was formally charged last night with trying to assassinate Cuban premier Fidel Castro. He goes on trial tomorrow night at La Cabana military fortress in Havana.

Castro's revolutionary government claims the 31-year-old former U. S. Navy pilot and Korean War veteran came to Cuba to kill Castro for $100,000. The money allegedly was offered by supporters of former President Fulgencio Batista, in exile since Jan. 1.

Nye denies the charge, claiming he came to Cuba last November to fight with Castro's rebels.

Hazards Of Education

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U. S. Education Commissioner Lawrence G. Derthick says no one knows how many coeds will sign up for new federal college loans.

The reason: No one knows how many will figure that a debt of $3,000 or $4,000 would discourage a boy from marrying them.

Girl Saves Own Life

EL PASO (UPI)—Doctors said today that 11-year-old Sharon Mounsey, saved her own life when she sucked the poison from a rattlesnake bite on her finger.

TIBURON PUPILS 'TOUR HAWAII'

Mrs. Sam Mercer of American President Lines and 6-year-old daughter Tina took first and fourth graders of Tiburon School on "tour of Hawaii" as part of classroom project this week. "Tour" was in fourth grade room of teacher Loa Forsyth, whose class has been studying Hawaii. Many pupils donned island costumes for the occasion. Tiburon School will be showing off such projects during Public Schools Week, which opens April 27. (Independent-Journal photo)

Bad Check Suspect Nabbed By Marin

A San Francisco check forger, with a record dating back to 1939, was jailed today for allegedly passing eight checks in Marin service stations and drug stores during the past three months.

James Hatley More, 53, a salesman, was held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $3,500 bail. Investigators William Bemiss and Antoan W. Adam Jr. of the district attorney's office and Mill Valley Police Officer Dan Terzich staked out More's apartment in San Francisco for eight hours last night to nab him at 12:15 this morning.

More also faces a 10-year prison term for violation of probation in Los Angeles.

Investigator Bemiss said More would forge checks for $17.50 and $19.50 payable to a "J. Moore." He is suspected of cashing these checks in Pt. Reyes, Fairfax, San Anselmo, San Rafael and Mill Valley.

Clerks at Lawson and Dyer Pharmacy in Mill Valley identified him for a check cashed there. Investigators Bemiss and Adam, with Mill Valley and Fairfax police, worked for 18 hours yesterday to track down More. He is believed to be working with a woman but she could not be found, said Bemiss.

More is believed to have passed similar forged checks in Vacaville, Fresno and Sonoma County.

1,500 Attend Opening Of Bowling Alley

A crowd estimated at 1,500 jammed the Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley last night for grand opening ceremonies for the $860,000 plant.

Thomas R. Coates, general manager, said the 200-car parking lot completely filled.

Guest of honor for the ceremony was Marin County Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who said he was glad to see such an establishment "on the tax rolls."

Twenty-four Marin dignitaries lined up at the 24 lanes to roll the first balls. First to deliver was Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark who, according to witnesses, rolled a gutter ball.

Coates said the only strike among the 24 was by Joseph Filippo of San Rafael, president of the Marin County Bowling Assn.

Master of ceremonies for the opening was Lloyd Brown of San Francisco, district manager for Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co.

In special matches, the Marin County Bowling Assn. team dropped a five-game match to the San Francisco team, 1,512 to 1,583. Jenny Judnick of San Jose defeated Mrs. Helen Van Ooster of San Rafael 943 to 902 in a five-game series. The four-man Marin team lost to the San Francisco Bowling Assn. team 2,749 to 2,550.

Dog Poisoned In San Rafael

"I want the dog poisoner, whoever he is, to know that he was successful and of all the unhappiness he has caused."

That was the sorrowful report today of Rufus Rhoades of San Rafael. He had left his 6-year-old Labrador retriever, Champ, run in the wooded area surrounding his home high in the hills of the Country Club tract.

The dog returned obviously ill and was taken to a veterinarian. It died a short time later of strychnine poisoning.

"I've reported it to the sheriff and I hope he finds the one who did it; I'll certainly prosecute," Rhoades declared.

OBITUARIES

Ira Morgan Dies; Ex-Film Cameraman

Ira H. Morgan, retired photography director for Columbia Pictures Corp. in Hollywood, died in a local hospital today at the age of 70.

He had homes in Hollywood and Mill Valley, but decided last fall to make his permanent residence in Mill Valley at 30 Bayview avenue.

Morgan retired three years ago after suffering a heart attack. His health had been failing since last August and he moved to the home of his niece, Mrs. Ruth B. Hall at 15 First street, San Rafael at Easter for care. He was hospitalized yesterday.

Before becoming a director, Morgan spent many years as a cameraman. He shot front-line pictures during World War I when he was in Europe as a second lieutenant in the Signal Corps. He received special recognition from the Army for his work.

His career in motion pictures began with Essanay Studios. He later worked for most of the major firms. He was photography director at Columbia for 15 years, working for Sam Katzman at the time of his retirement.

Earlier he spent five years with Cosmopolitan Productions in New York.

Morgan's late wife, Rena, was also connected with the theater. She was known professionally as Rena Carlton. The couple met in San Mateo County. They had been married 42 years when Mrs. Morgan died three years ago.

A native of Fort Ross in Sonoma County, Morgan belonged to the American Society of Cinematographers, American Legion Post 43 and the Shriners in Hollywood.

His survivors are a sister, Mrs. Vida M. Voliers, of San Rafael, and a brother, George R. Morgan of San Francisco.

Funeral services and burial will be in Hollywood. Keaton's Mortuary is handling local details.

Wright Will Be Buried In Home Town

PHOENIX (UPI)—The body of Frank Lloyd Wright will be returned tomorrow to the Wisconsin farm country where the world-famed architect was born 89 years ago.

Wright, a storm-center and a guiding light of modern architecture, died in the predawn hours yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital where he had undergone abdominal surgery Monday.

The white-haired, "rebellious old gentleman" who fought in his work and life the conventions of society, will be buried in the hillside chapel cemetery at Spring Green, Wis.

A few friends and members of the family joined with the architect's widow, Olgivanna, his third wife, last night, to pay last respects at Taliesin West on the outskirts of Phoenix where his body is lying in state.

Taliesin West was Wright's winter home. His Spring Green home in Wisconsin is Taliesin (Welsh for "radiant brow") where he also conducted an architectural school for apprentices.

He was born at Richland Center, Wis., near Spring Green.

3 Officials Unopposed In San Rafael Election

Mayor John F. McInnis and two other city officials are running unopposed for their posts in Monday's San Rafael election.

The mayor seeks a second two-year term for the $100 per month job.

City Clerk-Assessor W. L. Morgan runs for a second four-year term. Morgan draws $775 per month including car allowance and is scheduled to get $800 starting with the new term.

Tax Collector-Treasurer Angelina Soldavini gets $525 now, with a raise to $650 coming for the new term.

McInnis, 45, insurance broker, was elected to the city council in 1953. He went for the mayor's post in 1957, winning over Mayor Edward Culver. The big accomplishment during his regime was the off-street parking lots for downtown San Rafael.

A graduate of University of Washington, where he majored in economics and business, he opened his San Rafael insurance office in 1950. He is a past president of the Optimist Club, member of the Masonic Lodge, and was active in forming Toastmasters clubs in the county. He served in the Navy during World War II.

An accomplished speaker, he has guided many an explosive situation toward a calm discussion and solution.

McInnis, his wife, Lois, and children, live at 19 Billou street.

Morgan, 56, was a deputy city clerk from 1949 to '53. He was appointed to city clerk in July, 1953, to succeed the late Gene Smith and was elected to a four-year term in 1955.

Born in Norfolk, Va., he is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking. He was with Pacific Gas and Electric Co. from 1924 to '27, and with American Trust Co. from 1927 to '49. In 1919, he served in the Navy, and was a captain in the Army Signal Corps in 1942-46.

Morgan belongs to the Elks, Marin Masonic Lodge, American Legion and Marin Rod and Gun Club. He lives with his wife, Grace, at 15 Madeleine lane.

Miss Soldavini, 47, tax collector-treasurer since June of 1957, has been in the city tax collector's office for 30 years. When C. C. Webb retired in 1957, Miss Soldavini was appointed to the top job in the office.

She is the daughter of the late Nathan F. Soldavini, who was part owner of West End Market. Her brother, Remo, is part owner of the market now. Miss Soldavini lives with her mother, Amalia, at 527 C street, in the same house where she was born.

She attended San Rafael schools and went on to Healds Business College in San Francisco, graduating in October, 1927.

Miss Soldavini is a member of Young Ladies Institute, Italian Catholic Federation, Sons and Daughters of Italy and America and St. Raphael's Church.

Fund Voted To Remedy Slide Threat

A $7,000 expenditure was authorized today by Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors for soils engineering and corrective plans to remedy a slide situation on the Sausalito lateral to the bridge.

Preliminary studies showed work to prevent a potential slide, about halfway between the Sausalito city limits and Highway 101, would cost about $37,000. The preliminary study said a 300-foot stretch was in danger of sliding if the weather turns rainy.

General manager James Adam reported military authorities at the Presidio said they had no funds available for corrective work on the roadway, even if the slide danger had been caused by an excavation made for a Capehart housing project below the roadway. The military officials claimed the real cause of the slide danger was water and not the construction.

The board, presided over by vice president Matt Graham, Marin director, also:

1. Authorized the general manager to get proposals from consulting engineering firms to provide services to the district on a retainer basis.
2. Authorized the general manager to request sounding from the Coast and Geodetic Survey as a study of water ercsion at the base of the Marin pier.
3. Set up a special committee to interview applicants for a deputy auditor to assist Charles Hudson, now ill and due to retire this fall.
4. Urged the Division of Highways to widen the Tolay Creek Bridge at Sear's Point.

not bringing the resignations before the board during its regular session. He said the executive meeting lasted until 2 a.m.

Austin said he prepared the agenda for last night's board meeting, after discussion with Mrs. Fusselman. "I include an executive session whenever there are matters of hiring or dismissal to be taken up," he said.

ANNOUNCED EARLIER

Thon, drama and English instructor, said today he was unaware there was anything unusual about his resignation being presented at a closed session. He said he had simply presented his resignation because of prior commitments for next year. He said he had announced his resignation earlier in a letter to Austin.

Austin said Dr. Philbrick said she had moved to Berkeley and planned to take a part-time position with a psychiatric clinic there.

He said he did not know the reasons for Mrs. Irwin's resignation.

An Independent-Journal representative pointed out to Austin that calling an executive session, and reconvening the open session after everyone went home, might be a device to evade the state's anti-secrecy law, known as the Brown Act.

ONLY ONE CITIZEN

Austin said, however, that only one representative of the public besides an Independent-Journal reporter was present at last night's board meeting "and he went home before we reached that point." The reporter left when the doors were closed for the executive session. Austin informed him this morning of the resignations.

The Brown Act provides that an executive session may be held for (1) hiring, (2) dismissal or (3) hearing charges or taking testimony against an employee. It makes no provision for such a session for receiving resignations.

Austin said hiring was discussed during last night's secret session.

Manslaughter Case Jury Deadlocks

Ukiah railroad fireman Oliver George O'Quest, 57, accused of manslaughter in the death of a Santa Rosa minister in an auto accident, came out with a hung jury last night after almost seven hours deliberation.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety said he may ask for a new trial. Judge Richard W. Sims of Marin Municipal Court set next Friday as the date to set the new trial date.

The jurors were split 10 to 2 for conviction and later 11 to 1, but the lone holdout refused to yield. O'Quest was defended by attorneys David Menary Jr. and Newell Rawles.

O'Quest is accused of unlawfully killing without malice Benjamin Andrew Reile, 64, a Seventh-day Adventist minister from Santa Rosa, last Jan. 6. Highway patrolmen said that O'Quest's car went over the Highway 101 center line and crashed head-on with Reile's car on St. Vincent's Hill.

The bill of particulars also commented on a mail fraud indictment against savings and loan company operators in Baltimore. Indicted were C. Oran Mensik, Robert Suchman and Maryanne Barto, officers of Commercial Savings and Loan of Baltimore. The firm had advertised that its deposits were "commercially" insured by the Tangier firm.

The bill also said that Mensik helped convey second mortgages to the Tangier firm. But Ehrlich, former general counsel and a trustee of the Tangier firm, said he knows nothing of Mensik's activities in this respect.

War Hero To Open Nursery, Landscape Firm

Marin's only holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor will become Marin's newest businessman tomorrow.

Vito R. Bertold, who won the nation's top military decoration in action at Hatten, France in January, 1945, will open a nursery and landscape decorating service at 6246 Redwood highway, on the east side of the highway next to the Standard Oil station just south of the Black Point Cutoff.

Bertold, 42, lives at 811 Sir Francis Drake boulevard in Kentfield.

He has been employed recently as a contact representative of the Veterans Administration. However, he has years of experience as a landscape consultant and in nursery work.

Occupying office and display space in the nursery building will be representatives of allied lines, including William D. White of Terra Linda, Marin operator of the General Spray Service, and distributors of yards tools and similar equipment.

Assisting in operation of the nursery will be Bertold's wife, May, and Mrs. Elsie M. Price of Larkspur.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Expenses For Civil Defense Deductible

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Civil Air Patrol and civil defense expenses are deductible by businesses as ordinary and necessary business expenses and deductible by individuals as contributions to a governmental body.

Peter J. Wikel

Capital expenditures such as bomb shelters would have to be depreciated over the life of the structure.

Expense items such as blackout material, fire-fighting equipment, hand tools, the costs of participating in civil defense exercises, etc., would be deductible in the year of the expenditure.

Businesses would include these costs along with their other costs in determining their profit or loss for the year.

Individuals would have to itemize their deductions on page two of the tax return form in order to claim the deduction.

This would be a contribution to a governmental agency and would be subject to the maximum limitations of contributions.

You cannot claim as contributions more than 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income for contributions to governmental agencies, etc. You can claim up to 30 per cent of your adjusted gross income, provided that at least 10 per cent of your adjusted gross income was contributed to churches, educational institutions or tax exempt hospitals.

Pays Dividends

LAWRENCEBURG, Tenn. (AP) —The First Presbyterian Church's new $200,000 sanctuary has just about everything the 56-member congregation could want. And it's all paid for. How could such a small group pay cash? In 1949, the church received a gift of stock from the late Richard S. Reynolds Sr., president of the Reynolds Metal Co. Now the stock has increased in value enough to pay the costs of the new building.

Gambit Open Again With New Owners

The Gambit in Santa Venetia, which specializes in imported beers and exotic sandwiches, reopened last weekend with two new owners, both architectural designers by profession.

"I drove by one night to get a beer. I saw the little sign 'for lease' on the door. The next day I got Jack Jackson up from Atherton to look at it, and the following day we leased it," related George Burdette-Smith of Terra Linda. The beer and short-order emporium had been closed since Dec. 20.

"There'll be no more chess but we're keeping the name," said Burdette-Smith. "It's a very esoteric name. It means 'frolicsome romp' besides being a chess term."

The Gambit has been remodeled and the two partners have added to the sound system. They claim ownership of the "most fabulous stereophonic jukebox in Marin." They will continue to show paintings of local artists.

The Santa Venetia beer-and-sandwich spot at 405 North San Pedro road is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Woman Driver Hurt In San Rafael Crash

Mrs. Ella Ruby Adrian of 2341 Fifth avenue, San Rafael, complained of a bumped head after a two-car collision in San Rafael about 10:30 a.m. today.

The other driver, Mrs. Edith Elvera Minor, 55, of 124 Laurel drive, Fairfax, was cited for driving without due caution.

Officer Carl Selby said Mrs. Adrian stopped her car behind traffic on Grand avenue, when Mrs. Minor's auto headed east on Third street, made a left turn onto Grand. It jumped a curb and sidewalk and crashed with the Adrian vehicle.

GOVERNOR HAS GOLFING WOES

Transit Board To Select Engineers Soon

I-J Special Report

REDWOOD CITY—Bay Area Rapid Transit District directors will select engineering consultants—the ones who will propose the final design for a transit system—at a special meeting on April 29.

And the transit directors will meet two days after that, May 1, with directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District to discuss cooperation in planning a transit crossing from San Francisco to Marin County.

SAN MATEO MEETING

These two special meetings were scheduled yesterday as the full board of directors met in the San Mateo County courthouse here.

The meeting with the Golden Gate bridge directors was proposed by Marin Director John C. Beckett. He said the transit district "has been so absorbed in the trans-bay crossing for a year, we haven't considered much else." The crossing to the North Bay, he said, "is one of the major questions facing us."

AT TOLL PLAZA

The meeting will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the bridge toll plaza.

Recommendation on selection of engineering consultants will be made at the April 29 meeting in the district's San Francisco office, by the plans, development and engineering committee.

Beckett added that operations of the selected consultant would be "out in the open." He said that all stages of the consultant's planning would be publicized and that "there would be no secret report which would be sprung at the end of the year's study."

At 99, He Wants Someone To Cook

COLUMBIA, Mo (UPI)—J. W. Atkins, 99, says he can cook, but he's getting tired of it and would like to find a wife, about 65 to 70, in good health, who would do the cooking for him.

Atkins also said his future wife should be stout and even-tempered.

"I enjoy living and want to live longer," he said, "but it sure gets lonesome when you have no one around to think about you or talk to you."

Army Cooks Get Training In Hotels

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Army cooks in the Military District of Washington are getting expert training. Every eight weeks, four of them join the kitchen staffs at two big Washington hotels for intensive study of food preparation and service.

The GI's are graded each week by the hotel chefs under whom they work. And there's a final examination at the end of the course.

Ultimate Reason For Leaving Job

PHILADELPHIA — John T. Kerr, an employment interviewer, says now he's heard all reasons for job switching.

A woman recently applied for a position with Kerr's company. She said she formerly worked for a nudist camp.

Kerr glanced at her application and noted her reasons for leaving her previous job. She had stated, "change of scenery."

AND IT WORKED SO WELL

Ross Councilmen Sadly Decide Traffic Relief Plan Must Go

A new "left-turn-only" lane which has alleviated a traffic bottleneck at Sir Francis Drake boulevard and Bolinas avenue in Ross, may have to be abandoned and the congestion restored, city councilmen unhappily admitted last night.

The lane, contended Fred W. Good of 20 Sir Francis Drake boulevard, has created "an impossible situation" for him and his neighbors, who must cross a double line to turn into their narrow driveways.

"There's going to be an awful accident there, gentlemen," warned Good.

The new lane, painted only eight days ago, "has worked even better than expected in relieving traffic congestion at the corner," said Mayor Arthur Kanzee.

Cook retorted: "You are helping the people of San Anselmo and residents on Bolinas to go through, but at the expense of property owners."

"We didn't create the traffic problem," said Councilman James McNab, "but I don't see how we can prevent a man from going into his own driveway.

"The motor car industry has created a Frankenstein," Kanzee complained.

Councilmen agreed that the mayor and Police Chief Joseph Regoni should consider other means of relieving congestion at the corner.

Councilmen last night also agreed to a request by the Marin Municipal Water District for an additional five feet of right of way on a strip of city-owned land on Dettner avenue near Redwood drive. The water district will install a larger water main there and pay for a new fire hydrant, "which will increase fire protection in central Ross," said William R. Seeger, general manager of the district.

In other action last night, the Ross council:

1. Agreed to meet at 6 p.m. next Thursday for a visit to the E. L. Rossi property at Machin grade and Hill drive, to consider granting a variance which would allow Rossi to sell two adjacent one-half-acre parcels separately. Rossi last night told councilmen having to sell both lots simultaneously, according to city ordinance, would prove a hardship, since they are on different levels.

2. Granted variances to the following: Russell K. Sanders for a carport at 51 Wellington avenue, within 13 feet of the street; Dr. Charles S. Harrod for additions to residence on Allen avenue; C. O. Amonette Jr. for addition of carport and living room to his Shady lane home to extend to within 10 feet of sideline of property.

3. Adopted a resolution permitting firemen of Ross Fire Department to enter a mutual aid agreement with other fire departments in the county.

Five Stinson Units Approve Chapel Plans

Representatives of the groups comprising Stinson Beach Community Center, Inc., last night gave formal approval for the proposed community chapel which will become the third unit of the community center complex, according to president Alvin A. Eustis.

The five organizations are the Parent-Teacher Club, Allied Arts, Progressive Club, Community Presbyterian Church and volunteer firemen.

A building committee composed of Lester Sadler Jr., Joe Bordanaro and Edward Learly presented the plans and explained details of the proposed chapel.

With all labor for the unit being donated, it is expected materials will represent an investment of about $10,000, the group was informed. All funds for the present units and the proposed chapel are from local sales and events.

Each of the five member organizations met and voted last night. Each approved the proposed structure. Construction is to start immediately.

First Space Men Face Assignment With Nonchalance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seven jet pilots in their 30s—family men all—faced a challenging future as newly assigned Mercury astronauts.

Their mission: To ride satellites in orbits around the earth at altitudes of 100 to 150 miles and speeds of 18,000 miles an hour—and to bring themselves safely home again.

Their test rides could open the way for future flights to the moon and distant planets.

COOL DETACHMENT

At a National Aeronautics and Space Administration news conference yesterday the astronauts analyzed their assignments with cool detachment.

The work would be difficult, they said, but not too dangerous.

Were they worried? Hardly. Did their families approve? Heartily.

Were they happy about it? Delighted to get on the team. From the relative obscurity of military jet flying, the seven were catapulted into the status of public figures. Barring a Soviet first, one of them will gain fame as the first man to orbit the earth two years from now. The others are to follow him.

THREE AF CAPTAINS

Three are Air Force captains — Leroy G. Cooper Jr., Carbondale, Colo., just turned 32, and the youngest of the lot; Virgil I. Grissom, 33, Mitchell, Ind., and Donald K. Slayton, 35, Sparta, Wis.

Three are Navy officers—Lt. Malcolm S. Carpenter, 33, Boulder, Colo.; Lt. Cmdr. Walter M. Schirra Jr., 36, Oradell, N.J., and Lt. Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., 35, East Derry, N.H.

The oldest of the team is its lone Marine, Lt. Col. John Herschel Glenn Jr., 37, New Concord, Ohio. In 1957 Glenn made the first supersonic-all-the-way transcontinental flight, setting a Los Angeles-New York record of 3 hours 23 minutes.

ALL HAVE KIDS

Each of the astronauts has two children except for Carpenter, with four, and Slayton, with one.

As they strode onto the stage of an auditorium in their first public appearance, they were an impressive group.

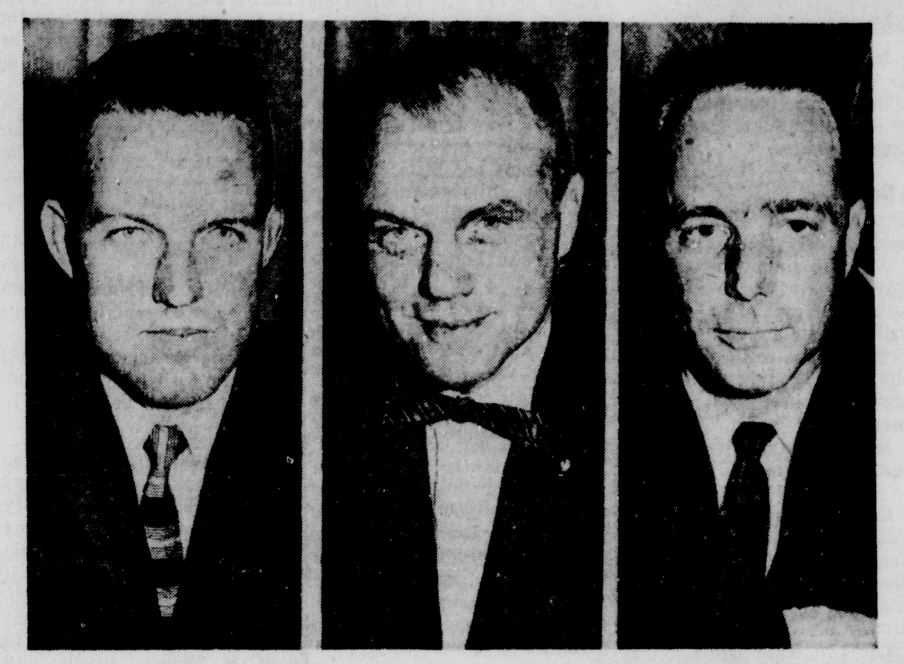

Their heights range from 5 feet 10 to 5 feet 11, except for Cooper, 5 feet 9½, and Grissom, 5 feet 7. Their weights range from 150 pounds for Cooper to 185 for Schirra.

All seven are white and Protestants. They are not extremely religious, but said they are sufficiently so that their Christian faith would help sustain them through the rigors of their new profession.

All emphasized that their wives endorsed the new careers, and that those of their children old enough to understand were enthusiastic about it.

The men were selected from 110 top flight test pilots of whom 31 actually took all the tests.

Dr. W. Randolph Lovelace of Albuquerque, N.M., head of the selection team, said the volunteers went through the most rigorous selection program ever devised.

Study Finds Business Executives Have Strong Jekyll-Hyde Traits

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)— Does a Jekyll-and-Hyde strain run through the ranks of America's business executives?

Does the roaring lion of the executive suite turn into an amiable lamb when he leaves the office?

Researchers at Michigan State University believe so.

They maintain the typical executive is apt to lead a double life, with one set of principles for the office, another for home and church.

The researchers have completed a pilot study in which they interviewed 162 executives in every echelon of the management hierarchy.

"The study indicates ambitious business executives do not regard as success-contributing those practices ordinarily regarded as good human relations," says the study director, Dr. Eugene E. Jennings of Michigan State's Business Administration College.

"Human relations," Jennings continues, "may be considered as an important adjunct of success by the executive, but not basic to it."

The professor adds:

"A majority of the men we interviewed admitted they believe self-interest is the basis of all human nature, that it is safer to be suspicious of men and assume their nature is more bad than good."

The questionnaire used in the study was shown to clergymen who were asked to anticipate executive reaction.

"Clergymen were generally way off in their judgments," Jennings says. "The majority under-estimated how distrustful the executive is and how difficult it may be for him to accept the brotherhood of man concept."

The researchers hold the double life practice revealed by the study does not mean the executive is immoral. "It merely indicates," Jennings maintained, "that the ethics of his business life may be forced to take different forms from the ethics of his personal life in some cases."

Chilly Air Follows Snowstorm In Rockies

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sunny skies returned to the Rockies today after a three-day storm piled as much as three feet of snow in the mountains and chilled temperatures to record lows.

Frigid air rushed in on the area last night as the storm clouds moved east and south ahead of light breezes. Near zero readings were common in the mountains with the 9 below at Fraser, Colo., the lowest.

Denver's overnight low of 7 above early today was a record for April 10.

Heavy rains along parts of the Texas Gulf coast touched off flooding in some residential sections of Houston.

Nearly four inches of rain was measured there in little more than 24 hours. More moisture was predicted through today, and city officials warned of possible serious flooding.

In Denver, the Weather Bureau forecast rising temperatures with a high of 45 in Colorado and Wyoming.

Three days of continuous snowfall ended yesterday afternoon.

Colorado Springs was buried under 23.3 inches of snow, a record for the resort city. Denver, with 14.5 inches, has had more than 75 inches of snow this year. That is more than double the normal figure for the Colorado capital.

Although Tennessee is a Southern state, one of its counties, Union, was so named because of the strong sentiment of it residents for preservation of the Federal union during the Civil War.

Faulkner's 'Sound And Fury' Tops List Of Films Showing At Marin Theaters

Sinatra Vehicle Comes To Rafael; Grace Kelly's Last Picture In Tiburon

By LESLIE DARD

A roundup on forthcoming and current features at Marin's theaters:

TAMALPAIS

"The Sound and the Fury" (color, CinemaScope), opening Sunday, offers Yul Brynner in the meatiest role he's had since "The King and I."

The story, based on one of William Faulkner's early successes, is a commercially potent film, with lots of top drawer stars (Joanne Woodward, Ethel Waters, Margaret Leighton). On another level, it is a profound allegory on modern man fit for more demanding audiences.

It takes place in a small Southern town, focusing on a mansion that is a remnant of a decaying aristocracy. Frustration, idiocy, alcoholism, incest — these are the elements of Faulkner's tale.

Brynner is head of the house by virtue of the fact that he is the only one with any character. Francoise Rosay is his stepmother, a hypochondriac. The others are John Beal, an alcoholic, still sensitive wreck of a man; Jack Warden, the idiot son; Joanne Woodward, a spiritual prisoner within the mansion.

Margaret Leighton, one of England's great actresses, appears as Miss Woodward's mother, returning home to face the child she bore out of wedlock and then abandoned. Their meeting is a brilliant moment on the screen.

Another factor that sparks the story is the love of Miss Woodward for Stuart Whitman, a circus thrill rider who loves 'em and leaves 'em. Brynner's triumph comes when he is able to awaken Miss Woodward to the reality of this romance and to teach her to stand on her own.

Estimate: Mature, vivid film.

RAFAEL THEATER

James (From Here to Eternity) Jones' sprawling story, "Some Came Running," has been boiled down, so that what emerges is a humor-spiced, sometimes bawdy stew. (It opens Sunday).

Frank Sinatra stars in this CinemaScope-color tale. He plays a boozy black sheep who wakes up one morning in his small Ohio hometown—the last place in the world he expected to be.

He promptly makes it into the pokey for a drunken street brawl, then proceeds to hook up with a professional gambler (Dean Martin) and does a lot of other things to scandalize the community and his stuffy brother (Arthur Kennedy). His antics also get him in trouble with a prim young beauty of a college teacher (Martha Hyer), with whom he has a frustrating sort of romance.

In fact, the only woman from whom he gets a response is one whose morals are rather shaky (Shirley MacLaine).

Sinatra brings a cynical grace to his performance as a man at war with the world, desperately on the road to somewhere, but where?

It is Miss MacLaine who makes the real acting contribution to this film. She adds reality to the role of a semi-literate floozy, pathetically lavishing all her love on one man.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"The Swan" (CinemaScope, color) was Grace Kelly's last film before she gave up acting for marriage. It established that she had become a thoroughgoing screen professional.

In this fluffy, enjoyable bit of whimsy, based on a Ferenc Molnar play, she is cast as the Princess Alexandra. She is to be the bait by which her royal house is to be restored to solvency—through the marriage to the Crown Prince (Alec Guinness).

Trouble is, the prince has inspected all the eligible pullets of Europe and finds her nothing more than a pretty bore. To make him jealous Mama (Jessie Royce Landis) introduces a handsome tutor (Louis Jourdan).

It all works out well, as you might expect.

What makes the film noteworthy are the highly polished performances, not only from the stars, but from Brian Aherne, as a sophisticated monk, and Agnes Moorehead and Estelle Winwood as slightly pixilated ladies of Middle-European lineage.

FAIRFAX

The current feature is "The Buccaneer," a splashy (VistaVision-Technicolor) romantic adventure starring Yul Brynner, Charlton Heston, Charles Boyer, Inger Stevens and Claire Bloom.

Cecil B. DeMille worked up this tale of how Gen. Andy Jackson (Heston), with the help of pirate Jean Lafitte (Brynner) and his band of buccaneers beat a crack army of British invaders at New Orleans—thus saving control of the Mississippi and the west for the United States.

Brynner has hair and a mustache in this epic.

Boyer is cast as Dominique You, Lafitte's chief gunner, while Miss Stevens appears as the governor's lovely daughter, whose heart goes thump-thump every time Lafitte's around. Miss Bloom is cast as a fiery babe in the pirate camp.

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

Through tomorrow night you can see "Roots of Heaven," an impressive color film version of Romain Gary's international best-seller.

It's the story of a strange crusader (Trevor Howard) who walks the African bush proclaiming his love for elephants. If these proud and gentle creatures can be saved from extinction, he declares, then perhaps mankind has a chance—for the roots of Heaven are in everything that lives on earth.

Taking part in this wide-screen story are a drunken ex-soldier (Errol Flynn), a warm-hearted barmaid (Juliette Greco), a photographer (Eddie Albert), a radio-TV personality (Orson Welles) and several lesser, but able performers. John Huston directed.

NOVATO

Through tomorrow evening, the feature is "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" This is a comedy assault on life in the suburbs, romance, the Pentagon and teen-agers. In CinemaScope and color, it stars Oscar-winner Joanne Woodward, Paul Newman, Jack Carson, Joan Collins and a young lady with the improbable name of Tuesday Weld. It's quite funny and touches on situations which may sound familiar to Novato area audiences.

"Inn of the Sixth Happiness," starring Ingrid Bergman opens Sunday (CinemaScope and color). This is a remarkably straightforward account of a young Englishwoman's adventures in China.

Brave and determined, she makes friends with an austere mandarin (Robert Donat), falls in love with a Eurasian colonel most of their support from herding Chinese children through rough country occupied by the Japanese invaders.

All this follows a colorful career as a battler for the less fortunate, for she has also built a home for orphans, carried medicine to the local bandits and brought about improvement in the lot of prisoners.

Miss Bergman gives an expert performance.

SEQUOIA

Come Sunday, the new color feature will be "Bell, Book and Candle," a comedy romance about a witch (Kim Novak) who sets her sights on a human (Jimmy Stewart).

The two main laugh-getters are Ernie Kovacs as a guzzling author of books on black magic, and Jack Lemmon, as Miss Novak's brother. They get most of their support from Elsa Lanchester as Kim's inept aunt, and Hermione Gingold, who portrays sort of a dowager lady among other witches.

It's a real Halloween plot.

Through tomorrow night, the main feature is "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," starring Elizabeth Taylor.

LARK

Mike Todd's "Around the World in 80 Days" ends its long run on Tuesday night.

Based on Jules Verne's famous story, it tells of an English gentleman (David Niven) who bets he can get around the world in 80 days. For company, he has a manservant (famed Mexican comic Cantinflas), an Indian princess (Shirley MacLaine) whom he rescues from a funeral pyre, and a dogged detective (Robert Newton) who thinks Niven is a bank robber. The year: 1872.

By use of a device called a cameo, Todd introduces brief performances by famous actors: Frank Sinatra (a piano player), Marlene Dietrich (mistress of a Barbary Coast joint), Ronald Coleman, Charles Boyer, Noel Coward, Joe E. Brown, Edmund Lowe, Victor McLaglen, Sir John Gielgud, etc. etc.

Niven and Cantinflas pursue their journey in a balloon, through a bull ring, by boat, train and what have you. And these adventures add up to one of the great films of the decade.

OSCAR WINNERS TEAMED — Joanne Woodward and Yul Brynner, both Academy Award Winners, are to be seen starting Sunday in William Faulkner's "The Sound and the Fury," at the Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo simultaneously with the first San Francisco showings.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

New Slant For Le Chateau Menu; Pier 15 Boasts Boat, Organist

To my knowledge, Le Chateau has always rated high among approved dineries. With Les Johnston doing the cheffing right now it's something like a golfer out to break his own best score.

Outside of the facts his middle name is French and he grew up in New Orleans and spoke through his nose as a boy (a trait that he lost years ago), Les is about as American as you can get. One thing that hasn't rubbed off is a natural talent for cooking, though Les would be the last to claim his French ancestry had anything to do with it. His idea is that it's all a matter of specialized training.

Either way he's an asset to Le Chateau, and some of his concoctions are little short of fabulous, although there again Les would say that I'm stretching things too far. One of them is his roast Long Island duckling Tahiti (he'll prepare it l'orange if you want it that way). Also his shrimp Creole, Alaska king crab supreme and Imperial Valley boneless squab.

All these may not be on the menu everyday—the duck, for example, is a weekend special. The point is, the whole menu has taken on a different slant and whether you want lobster thermidor or veal scallopini it's cooked to order, and if Les thinks I'm putting him on the spot or something by saying it's exceptional, I am and what's he going to do about it?

EASTER IS almost two weeks past so I suppose by now Angelo Sabella has recovered from having some 200 youngsters swarm over the premises in the restaurant's first egg hunt.

A special breakfast was offered for the occasion—eggs or hotcakes, ham, bacon or sausage (choice of two). Waitresses were confounded when several of the young 'uns took it literally and ordered ham and bacon. One order came through for ham and sausage.

I dunno—maybe it's an old Easter custom we don't know about.

RECOLLECTIONS of a most appetizing lunch at Mission Inn —Leo Albertoni's Swiss steak Italian style with wine sauce and mushrooms galore, not to mention the soup—ah yesss the soup—'twould be a mistake not to mention it, which tastes like two servings, at least. All this served by new waitress, attractive Elaine Beasley, who's right there on the draw.

Mission Inn also has a dinner special, changed daily—$1 a la carte, $1.50 full course. Who said you can't get a good meal in Marin without paying through the nose? Poppycock—try it and see.

HARKINS HAS cooked up another one. It's called braised veal pocket with veloute (white) sauce and stuffed with country sausage and most patrons of El Paseo think it's nuts—I mean that's what it tastes like, which is delicious.

Braised veal pocket is an old Italian dish but you're not likely to find it served anywhere in these parts except at El Paseo. Between keeping up with the orders and restraining customers from walking off with their new hand-painted menus by Kevin, Earl and Mary have their hands full.

Did I mention Mary's blueberry muffins? They shouldn't be ignored. Try 'em.

INNOVATIONS at Pete Lind's Pier 16—a party boat by the name of Gail Marie for charter—and an organist by the name of Kim Kimmel for entertainment.

The first is Pete's 42-foot cruiser which he rents out for excursions and fishing parties. He'll work out a deal with you to supply the food and extras, but you need 14 persons.

Kim Kimmel plays at Pier 15 Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Husky baritones are encouraged to clear their voices before the mike.

One more—an outdoor patio complete with tables and umbrellas should be ready in about two weeks.

FRED MARTINEZ of Ondine prides himself on his steak Tartare, considered a real delicacy and pick-me-up. It's not served too many places, and people who have never run across it are in for a surprise, particularly if the waiter who happens to take their order happens to have a French accent and scrambles up his explanation of what it is so you don't understand it.

It is, in effect, ground filet Mignon and brought to the table raw. If you are unitiated you will expect it to be cooked in front of you with some sort of spectacular flourish. The preparation is spectacular enough but consists of frilling it up with egg yolk, onions, pickles, anchovies and certain other savories and serving it to you in its natural state.

Like they say, it's quite a delicacy and pick-me-up—ask anyone who has raw meat on their diet. Grrruff!

Experimental Film Showings Slated

Experimental films will be shown tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. at 511 Caledonia street in Sausalito.

The showing will feature films by Proctor Jones, Jordan Belson, Christopher MacLaine and James Whitney. Local sponsor of the Filmaker presentation is Horace Schwartz, San Rafael camera dealer. Tickets will be available at the door.

NICE WORK IF YOU CAN GET IT — Joe Shipman is cast in the role of a detective in "Chimera Obscura," original offering of the Terra Linda Little Theater scheduled for April 24 and 25. Use your own judgment as to what he's detecting in this pose with two "Dollies of the Follies," Jetaun Fisher (lfet) and Lorraine Freeman.

Terra Linda Little Theater Readying First Production

A cast of 45 is readying the first offering of the Terra Linda Little Theater for performance on April 24 and 25 at 8:30 p.m. in San Rafael High School Auditorium.

As many more persons are involved as directors, choreographers, choral directors and on the other committees needed to produce a show.

The production, titled "Chimera Obscura," is a composite of bits of the theater with book and lyrics of the first two acts by Dustin Lake. Eddie Smith, with Arthur Bergman, has written many original songs as well as orchestrating the music and directing the musical portions.

The first act is called "The Essence of Theater." It represents a group of would-be thespians displaying dramatics as they try to decide what to perform. Playing the part of a director, Barry Watkinson narrates the first act. Some of the other roles are carried by Clarence Leisure, Gordon Young, Warren Hamilton, Ed Boyle, Virginia O'Brien and Joe Shipman.

In the second act, "Who Done It?" the players believe they have found what they wish to produce. Playing parts of burlesque queens are Norma Martus, June Matlock and Joey Re. Others featured in these scenes are Fay Blair, Bob Friend and Johnny Allair. Two of the songs by the chorus are "We Are the Dollies," and "It's the Butler, Not the Ingenue."

The pace is changed decidedly for the third act. It represents the serious work of a little theater, and is a Chinese fantasy titled "Great Horn." Clarence Leisure sets the scene as narrator with Bill Sievers singing the solo part as a Chinese story teller. Joe Shipman and Dale Beck perform solo dances and a combined waltz number. Chorus and dancers also participate.

Song titles for the fantasy include "Here Comes the Dragon," "My Love is an Arrow," and "We Are the Lords of Darkness."

Tickets are on sale at Marin Music Center. Sales chairmen are Norma Martus and Dale Beck who report that the second night seats are almost sold out.

ROYAL WEDDING PROCESSION—Crown Prince Akihito and his princess, Michiko, rode in glittering carriage through the streets of Tokyo after their wedding, as thousands thronged the city. Procession was marred by a youth who tossed a stone at Akihito, then lunged at carriage. Police grabbed him quickly. (AP Wirephoto)

Jubilant Japanese Celebrate Union Of Prince, Commoner

TOKYO (AP)—Millions of jubilant Japanese rejoiced with parade and picnics today over the precedent-breaking marriage of Crown Prince Akihito to a beautiful commoner who will one day share the ancient chrysanthemum throne.

Celebrating throngs walked the streets of flag-bedecked Tokyo long after a gold-encrusted carriage had carried the radiant bride, Michiko Shoda, and her prince to their suburban residence.

Only an unemployed youth, Kensetsu Nakayama, 19, marred the day-long celebration. He electrified the throng along the newlyweds' processional route — and millions more watching on television—by hurling a stone at Akihito.

When it missed, he leaped onto the moving horsedrawn carriage in a desperate lunge at the prince.

Police seized him immediately. He told them: "I am opposed to the emperor system and have been since childhood. But I had no intention of killing."

The prince, 25, and his new princess, 24, gave no sign of noticing the incident and continued to nod smilingly and wave to the crowd.

The sun-filled day touched three ages symbolic of the new Japan that blends democracy and age-old tradition.

With a sip of sacred wine at a holy Shinto sanctuary deep within the Imperial Palace grounds, the heir to the throne wed the gracious girl he met on a tennis court.

With the union Michiko was transformed from a commoner-daughter of a wealthy flour miller—into her Imperial Highness Crown Princess Michiko. Her rise from commoner status to the second ranking woman of the nation was heralded by Japan's youth as a sign of the nation's emergence as a modern democracy.

The triumphal procession that followed before a wildly cheering 530,000 was a picture lifted from the 19th century, complete with clattering horse-drawn carriages, liveried footmen in golf trimmed waistcoats and stiffly formal coachmen in white knee breeches, silk stockings and cocked hats.

BRIGITTE LOSES AUTO RACE IN LONDON TO PRINCESS MARGARET

LONDON (AP)—Two chauffeurs raced their big black limousines along the wide highway into London last night.

In the back of each auto sat a beautiful young woman, apparently oblivious to speeds up to 80 miles an hour.

The cars slowed for a traffic light and halted alongside.

Princess Margaret and Brigitte Bardot stared at each other.

The lights changed, and the royal limousine swept ahead. It beat the next traffic light, and Brigitte's lost the race.

"I don't know if she knew me," said the sexy little French film star later. "But she looked at me very hard. I was presented to her two years ago at a royal film performance in London."

The princess was returning to London from Windsor Castle. The actress is here from Paris to make a film.

U. S. Taking Steps To Guard Castro

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is quietly mobilizing a big section of its security force to guard Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro during an un-official 11-day visit starting Wednesday.

Anti-Castro demonstrations are expected to boil up in the path of his good will tour of Washington, New York, Princeton, N.J., and Cambridge, Mass.

Some telephoned threats and warnings already have been received by the department and the Cuban Embassy.

The elaborate step-by-step security guard will be fully as intensive as that given Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan during his stormy coast to coast travels last January.

Some of Castro's bearded personal bodyguards will accompany him.

But the State Department has the main responsibility for shielding him from demonstrators, crackpots and potential assassins, as well as enthusiastic well wishers.

In advance of Castro's arrival, an outfit calling itself the "Anti-communist Movement of the Americas" set up shop in a downtown hotel.

Lama Nearing Rendezvous

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Dalai Lama today was reported about three days from Bomdila, a northeast Indian town where Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's special envoy and a jeep are to meet him.

The royal Tibetan party of fugitives continued its slow progress through the Himalayas by horseback. The travelers were believed to have camped last night at Sangzong, on the centuries-old caravan route.

Earlier, the 23-year-old godking crossed the 14,500-foot Se-La Pass, one of the most dangerous part of his journey.

Nehru's envoy, P. N. Menon, arrived at Tezpur by plane and prepared for the jeep trip to Bomdila. He and the Dalai Lama are expected to fly from Bomdila to New Delhi, arriving in the Indian capital April 14.

Brisk fighting between Tibetan rebels and Chinese Communist troops was reported still going on in several places in Tibet.

The Times of India said the rebels had isolated Chamdo, on the main supply road between China and Lhasa, the Tibetan capital.

Yemen Shaping Course Away From Soviets

CAIRO (AP)—Mobs in the Arabian Peninsula kingdom of Yemen have taken up President Abdel Gamal Nasser's anti-Communist campaign and have stoned Soviet technicians.

The primitive little Arab kingdom's aging, ailing ruler, Iman Ahmed, is trying hard to escape from the powerful Communist bloc influence at work in his country since 1957, diplomats report.

Yemen joined Nasser's United Arab Republic in a loose federation in 1957 and adopted its leaning toward Moscow. Ahmed was embittered at the West because of border troubles with the British in their neighboring Aden protectorate. The Yemen ruler accepted offers of Communist-bloc aid.

Large numbers of technicians arrived from the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Red China. A huge Soviet military mission followed shipments of tanks and other weapons.

Last month, as the Reds grew stronger and stronger in Iraq, Nasser launched an all-out anti-Communist campaign. Cairo's "Voice of the Arab" radio station carried his message to the Yemenite masses. Soviet technicians and propagandists were stoned several times and the old ruler began to shift his course.

Haitian Rebels Hijack Airliner, Fly To Cuba

SANTIAGO, Cuba (AP) — Six Haitian rebels killed the pilot of a plane high over Haiti yesterday and forced the co-pilot at gunpoint to fly them to eastern Cuba.

Among the 32 persons aboard when the rebels whipped out pistols was one American, George Salling, 58, of Ridgewood, N.J. There was a brief but fierce struggle between crew and rebels, and the pilot, Eberle Guilbaud, was killed.

The rebels forced the plane to land at Santiago, Cuban headquarters for the Haitian revolutionary movement.

Cuban officials said the rebels made their move shortly after the plane had taken off from Aux Cayes in southern Haiti on a short flight to Port au Prince, the capital of the Negro republic 170 miles southeast of Santiago.

On landing here the revolutionists asked political asylum of Fidel Castro's Cuban government, which already harbors some of the leading political foes of Haitian President Francios Duvalier.

The Haitian government was expected to demand return of the plane and all aboard, and particularly of the seven rebels to face punishment. But it was generally assumed the seven would be allowed to stay in Cuba.

Six weeks ago the Duvalier government canceled all exit visas for Haitians in an apparent move to prevent them from joining the "Haitian Revolutionary front" in Cuba.

Billboard Control Bill Better With Strong County Control

Senator John F. McCarthy has considerably improved his legislation to regulate billboards. He has put more power into the hands of the County Boards of Supervisors.

"I'd like to go further (in controlling outdoor advertising)," McCarthy declared. "This is not the maximum type of bill I'd like. But in all equity, I think it is now a fair control with ultimate power coming from the county level."

One of the major objections we had to his original proposal was that it transferred zoning power from the county to the state. This is the same reason we opposed the federal billboard ban along interstate highways.

McCarthy's proposal, as it now stands, would set up state regulations for highway billboards. However, these regulations would not be in effect unless the Board of Supervisors in the county designated "scenic highways." The roads so designated would be under the controls.

This seems a more sensible plan. In the earlier plan, all state freeways and expressways would be under the state regulation regardless of whether they ran through barren wasteland or scenic grandeur.

Under the amended McCarthy measure, the supervisors could designate scenic portions of a highway and not designate portions of the same road which they felt would not be harmed by outdoor advertising.

If the aesthetic value of our countryside is the real reason for the legislation, as proponents say it is, this should be a fair solution. It does not prevent the supervisors, if they so desire, to pass more stringent regulations than the state. On the other hand, if the residents of a county want billboards every 100 feet, that's up to them.

What the measure does now is to provide standard regulations for all counties if they desire to use them. It makes it easier for a county to regulate billboards and enforce the regulations—with state support.

There are still some parts of the McCarthy proposal we don't like. One is the prohibition of a particular kind of advertising, brand name advertising. If the state starts telling the advertising people what products and commodities they can or can not advertise, it might lead anywhere. The Legislature might, for example, pass a law prohibiting the use of billboards for political purposes by anyone except incumbents. When they start saying what can be printed and where, it's time to look out.

We think McCarthy has a much better bill than he had originally, and it may very well pass. But we don't think he'll get his closing hope at a hearing Tuesday. This hope was that the measure would pass "so maybe then we won't have to have a billboards bill before the Legislature every session."

We have news for you, Senator McCarthy. If the state takes over regulation of billboards, you are assured of several billboard bills every session. Nobody is going to be exactly satisfied no matter what is done.

YOUR PROPERTY TAX—II

How Assessor 'Takes Inventory' Of Marin's Taxable Property

(NOTE: One of a series explaining Marin County property tax processes.)

By
BERT W. BROEMMEL
Marin County Assessor

In yesterday's article we stated that the assessor is charged with seeking out and placing a value on all taxable property within the county. Today we discuss how the assessor "takes inventory" of taxable property.

The State Constitution states "the legislature shall by law require each taxpayer in this state to make and deliver to the county assessor annually, a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such taxpayer, or in his possession, or under his control, at 12 o'clock meridian on the first Monday in March."

The Legislature, in providing for this, added that "at any time, as required by the assessor for assessment purposes, every person shall furnish information or records for examination."

To facilitate these provisions of law, your assessor endeavors to furnish each owner of residential, business, and/or rural property a property statement.

The law says that "the assessor shall exact the property statement from each person and that "failure of the assessor to demand or secure the property statement does not render any assessment invalid." The information obtained "shall be held secret by the assessor."

The law also provides that "after written demand by the assessor, if any person neglects or refuses to comply with any provision of law for obtaining information from taxpayers, the assessor may penally assess the property."

It also provides for penal assessments against property wilfully concealed by the owner to evade taxation.

This is only just, since evasion of tax on the part of some results in others paying a larger share of tax.

Let's look at the Residential Personal Property Statement, which is sent to each owner of Residential Property in the County (See cut below.)

Opposite your name is the parcel number which serves as a description of the real estate you own.

QUESTION 1. If you live on this property, the answer is "Yes." From this it will be assumed that you own the household effects and they will be assessed to you.

The assessed value of such effects will be related to the type of dwelling occupied. Do not list your household effects. It is not necessary.

QUESTION 2. If you rent any of this property to others for dwelling purposes, answer "Yes." And, only if you rent unfurnished or partially furnished, fill in the information requested on the reverse side of the statement.

The assessor will assess the tenant for the effects they own. The owner of the dwelling will be assessed for any furnishings in rented premises owned by him; however, these need be listed only when dwelling is rented partially furnished.

QUESTIONS 3, 4 and 5 are self-explanatory.

An exemption of $100 is allowed on the personal property of every householder. No special application need be made, other than the filing of the Residential Personal Property Statement. Those who rent furnished dwellings to others are not entitled to an exemption on the furnishings in such dwellings.

Assets such as bank deposits, automobiles, stocks, bonds, mortgages, etc., are not taxable by local government.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Marin General Has Patients, No Profit

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Perhaps an investigation should be made into mis-management of Marin General Hospital. For it seems strange that operating at 90% occupancy, and over, they can't show a profit.

Further, why is it that rates are higher in a tax-free, non-profit institution than they are in privately owned hospitals in the same area? And these latter hospitals make a profit and pay for their own expansions.

I know the manager of Marin General will tell us that their services are better, that their rate includes certain medication that one pays extra for in other hospitals. But from what I have learned, that service is negligible, perhaps a few aspirin, and they are a dime a thousand. They admit their drug department is making a profit, so you can be certain they aren't giving anything away.

After paying for the cost of that hospital, what good does it do us? We can still get less expensive care in a privately owned hospital. Let's face it Marin taxpayer, we got took. And we'll be taken for a long time yet, for there's many many years left before the bond is paid off.

When Marin General was built I charged in a radio program that the taxpayer would never approve another bond to build an addition to the hospital. I stated my reason for believing so; it was simply that the hospital was not built as they told us it would be when they wanted our vote to pass the bond. Among other promises they said it would be a working man's hospital. It turned out to have no wards but it did have elaborate and expensive equipment, such as nurse to patient communication, which is seldom used, if ever.

And there are other items, all of which upped the price and takes more money to operate. So far my prediction has proven true, we have twice defeated another bond issue. We will again, and should. That hospital is not our hospital.

Any officials of a privately owned hospital who couldn't show a profit by operating at 80% occupancy would be out of a job in a month. Marin General can't make it by operating at 90% and over, in addition to all their exemptions.

Think of it this way: Marin General has a few over 100 beds operating, as they say, at over 90% occupancy. They expect a deficit of $20,000 this year. If they add another 100 beds, it is admitted that they will not operate at 90% occupancy for several years. And did you know that if Marin General runs in the red, we can, by law, be taxed to made up that deficit?

Firm Not Against Civic Center

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

For the second time in a month the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company has been identified with the screwballs that are harassing our Board of Supervisors and the state attorney general's office about our proposed civic center.

I work for this fine company and I very much resent the attempt of this lunatic fringe to associate the firm with their purely private view points.

The Fund has been serving the insurance needs of the country and the Bay Area for decades and I very much doubt if there is any inclination on the part of our management to intrude into the affairs of Marin County citizens.

I make no pretense of speaking for the company, but I'm pretty sure that these other people don't either. From personal conversations I know that the majority of Fund employees that are lucky enough to live in Marin do not agree with the vocal minority.

Reader Azevedo Didn't Say It

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your reporter at the Congressman Clem Miller meeting with school trustees and educators quoted me as being concerned with the domination of the textbook field from Washington if the Murry-Metcalf Bill or other federal aid to education was passed by Congress.

To set the matter straight, such thoughts were mumbled by a gentleman sitting behind me and I may say with some feeling, I, for one, do not have those fears.

Incidentally, I though that Congressman Miller was exceptionally well informed on the issues of federal education and this bill in particular. Both Republicans and Democrats could not but be aware of his desire to hear from all people on this issue and to take their opinions into account.

I shall sit next to your reporter in the future in order to aid the I-J in its efforts to give the news objectively.

Sell The Army To The Draftees

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

After reading the colonel's letter last evening (April 2) I was left with the following conclusion:

Without recruiters all qualified young men would be taken into the armed services by the draft. During their two-year tour would seem the practical time to sell the required number of these men on the desirability of career service. The overburdened taxpayer would thus be spared the enormous bill resulting from maintaining personnel, offices, advertising features, equipment and automobiles in every County seat in every State.

If You're A Gas Station, You Face A Tough Job Finding Place To Stay

Gas stations seem to be fair targets these days in the new nation-wide game of planning roulette.

While the average folks can't do much to get their favorite gas emporium to reduce the price per gallon—by means of planning-conscious governmental bodies, they are sure able to put a gun in the back of potential service station operators looking for a place to light.

Some of the more recent examples of the rout of the petroleum dealers accured in Kentfield where Standard Stations felt the bite and in Corte Madera where Tidewater Oil Co. ran up against the blank wall of a new powerful planning commission.

In Kentfield the proposed station on the east side of College avenue got the heave-ho through the backing of the Kentfield Civic League.

The status of two gas stations (already in town) was "quo" said the members of the league.

THIS WEEK the Corte Madera town council all but glared down the appeal of the Tidewater Oil Co. for construction of a gas station on its own property at the entrance of the Fifer Industrial Park along Highway 101.

The planning commission in recommending denial earlier said that the proposed site was on the best available land in town for light industrial development, and therefore unsuitable for such a low purpose as a gas station.

William T. Bagley, San Rafael attorney for the company, argued that the firm had purchased the property several years ago and at one time even obtained a valid building permit for the station. Then in the intervening time several changes had occurred in zoning regulations and the company found itself blackballed from its own site.

He cited the support of the station plan by the Fifer interests.

"No," said the commission, and perhaps so will the council.

Well, sure it's just a private business being pushed around, but somehow we shudder at the thought of our having to deal with newly empowered public bodies that feign helplessness at the letter of the law.

GOLLY, we don't like the ridiculous situation at the so-called "Hub" in San Anselmo where the supply trucks even have to park their stern ends (illegal?) in traffic lanes to unload gasoline.

We don't think it axiomatic that the private person or business always seeks to foul its own nest.

A NEW CLASH between city planning and private property is shaping up in another area of Corte Madera.

Nothing much, just that a property owner has announced to the council he plans to go ahead and build a four-unit apartment on the site that city fathers (in a flash of foresight) laid out for a civic center site.

The owner, G. B. Cunningham of 45 Pixley avenue, told the council in a letter it only seemed right to be able to use the property until the city actually needed it.

Question for the planners: Buy now and tie up money; or wait and be forced to purchase the house as well as the lot?

Tackling the delicate matter will be Mayor William R. Hansen and Councilman Albert Kogler, along with Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow.

WITH A VIEW to getting back more into photography (for the I-J) we took our more-than-worthy replacement around the lower Ross Valley this week to meet some of you folks.

Now acquainted with the charm of the Greenbrae boardwalk, skill of the Larkspur council and intricacies of the Corte Madera cloverleaf is the former county-beat reporter Bill Earle, whom we think you'll enjoy.

WALTER LIPPMANN

There Are Solid Reasons Some People Think Germany Should Remain Divided

(NOTE: Walter Lippmann has just returned from Europe, where he has taken a first hand look at the Berlin crisis.)

As I discussed yesterday, the two-Germany concept of the Russians is not alone the result of the Soviet's power to stay in East Germany as long as she likes.

The truth, I believe, is that for a variety of reasons the prolonged division of Germany has very wide support all over Europe.

It is not merely that Hitler's war is still a living memory in Europe, and that the fear of a rearmed and reunited Germany exists in London and in Paris and even in Bonn as well as in Warsaw and in Moscow.

What we have to take account of is the fact that in the 14 years which have elapsed since the Allies occupied Berlin and abolished the Nazi government of Germany, the two Germanys have grown apart. The Soviet Union on its side, the Western allies on their side, have developed powerful, indeed compelling interests in maintaining the division of Germany.

THERE IS REASON to believe that Mr. K's action last November had its origin in the uprisings in East Germany, in Poland, and in Hungary. They occurred after the summit meeting at Geneva in 1955—when the Soviets still spoke of reunification. Almost surely the uprisings convinced the Kremlin that unless they held tightly to East Germany, which is like the cork in the bottle, the whole satellite orbit would liquidate itself.

Parallel with this development in the East, there have been developments in the West which point to the same end—the continuing division of Germany. One of these is what is called the movement "to make Europe" — which means the movement to integrate economically, and eventually politically, the West Germans within Western Europe.

THIS MOVEMENT has great economic vitality on the continent. And there is reason to think that on the political side it is for many in the younger generation the one most attractive ideal that has been offered to them.

But in this West European community there is no comfortable place for the East German state, which would be very left wing if not Communist. It is no accident, but quite logical, that the leaders of the European movement are not enthusiastic for German reunification.

And then there is NATO. Its strategical structure rests on the deployment of the Allied armies in Western Germany, and on their reinforcement by a West German army. There is really not any way by which this military structure could be preserved in any conceivable form of a reunited Germany.

SINCE ALL the Western allies regard the NATO shield as indispensible to their own security, they must in fact and they do in fact oppose any German settlement which would dismantle the military structure in West Germany.

I do not wish to labor the matter beyond making the point that beneath the official Mr. K.'s policy of two Germanys finds great resonance in Western Europe.

It is in this context—of a general concensus that reunification is not now practical politics—that Berlin has become a new and special problem.

Plans Own Business

Planning Staff Member To Go Into Business

John D. Erickson, a member of the Marin County planning staff since 1957, today announced he is leaving his public post to enter private planning practice.

Erickson, who lives in San Francisco, plans to open an office late this summer in San Rafael.

The 35-year-old planner joined the Marin County staff after five years of experience in architectural and planning work in Philadelphia, San Francisco and Stockholm, Sweden.

He worked for a Swedish architectural firm doing precise neighborhood designs in Stockholm suburban area developments after his graduation from Yale College in 1950. It is this type of work in which he hopes to specialize in Marin County.

Prior to joining the county planning staff he was with the architectural office of Wurster, Bernardi and Emmons in San Francisco.

Erickson served in the Navy for four years during World War II. He holds a bachelor of architecture degree from Yale's School of Fine Arts.

Drunken Driver Jailed, Fined

Martin Tunes Helgeson, 46, of 314 Caledonia street, Sausalito, must spend five days in jail and pay a $250 fine for his second drunken driving offense.

He was sentenced yesterday by Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court. He was caught last Dec. 20 on Highway 101. He was convicted of a similar offense in Marin in March of 1956.

James Elwyn Martin, 49, a machine operator, of 350 Richardson way, Mill Valley, must pay a $250 fine for his first drunken driving offense, the judge ruled. Martin was arrested March 30 on Highway 101 near Alto.

Wrecking Yard Termed Nuisance

The county planning department has asked Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich to take action to abate the alleged nuisance of an auto wrecking yard operated on Novato's Simmons lane by Louis Worden.

In a letter to Weissich, planner Wesley Wilkes asked the abatement action citing numerous complaints from residents of Simmons lane against the wrecking operation.

Wilkes said the yard is operated in a limited agricultural zone, which permits only residential and certain limited agricultural uses. Auto wrecking, under Marin's zoning ordinance, is allowed only in industrial zones, he noted.

Those School Buildings Aren't Quonset Huts

The two structures which Lagunitas School District voted to sell are not quonset huts as described in the Independent-Journal yesterday, according to Supt. Clifford L. Frye. "The buildings are metal, but they are the Butler type. They have gabled roofs instead of arched, he declared.

Frye said school officials feared the term "quonset" might hurt their chances of disposing of them.

Approximately 40,000 foreign students representing 136 countries came to United States schools for study during the 1956-57 year.

The U.S. Army has just published two volumes reviewing the work of the Army Signal Corps from the time of Pearl Harbor through the first 18 months of World War II.

3 Marin Girls In NAACP Queen Race

Three Marin City girls were announced as candidates for queen of the golden anniversary celebration of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, at last night's meeting of the Marin County chapter in Marin City.

They are Ethel Phillips, Noel Beard and Henrietta Johnson.

Mrs. Margaret Stone, chapter secretary, said the queen contest in the Northern California area will run until May 30, during which time the girls will be selling votes and also obtaining sponsorship from local groups.

The Marin County winner will be crowned May 2, Mrs. Stone said, when a dance will be held in Santa Rosa in conjunction with the Santa Rosa chapter.

Winner of the area contest is to be crowned June 20 in San Francisco.

LIVE BETTER BY EVEN FARTHER — Nothing could better keynote the current auto industry "Live Better by Far With a Brand New Car" campaign than this Mark IV Continental limousine, which this year restores a tradition of the classic automobile era of 30 years ago. The six-model Continental line is distributed in Marin by Larry Brink, 433 Miller avenue, Mill Valley, and E. Bugna, Third street and Lincoln avenue, San Rafael.

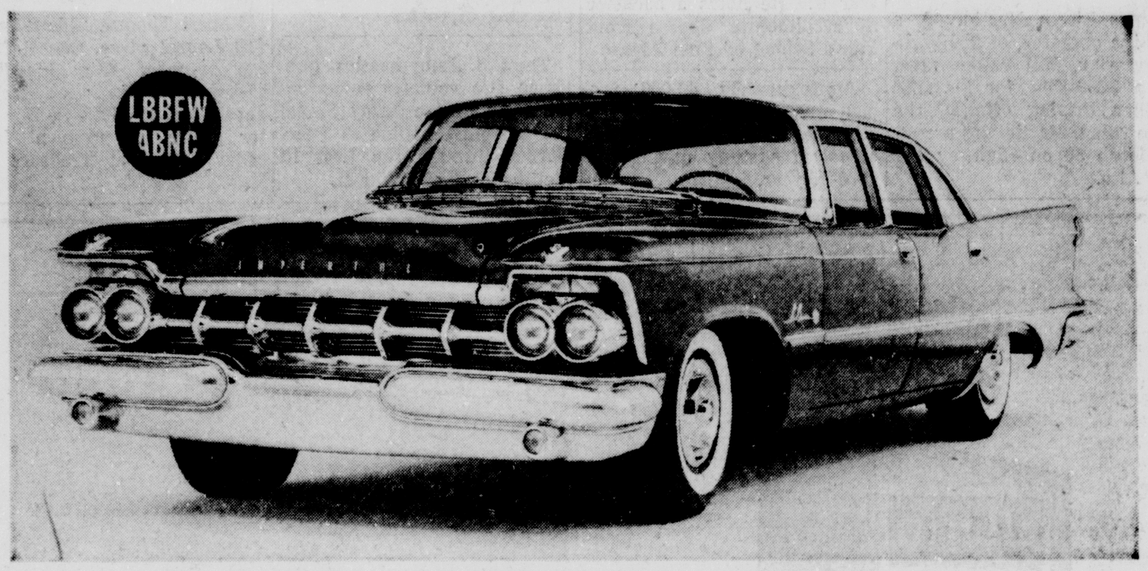

'THE STANDARD BY WHICH OTHERS ARE JUDGED' — Cadillac lives up to its long-time slogan with its 1959 line, including this Fleetwood 60 Special — one of the auto industry's top examples of how to "Live Better by Far With a Brand New Car."

The initialled insignia on the pictures on this page symbolize the current "Live Better by Far . . ." campaign, which runs through April 18. Bianco Motors at Fourth and E streets, San Rafael, is the Marin Cadillac dealership.

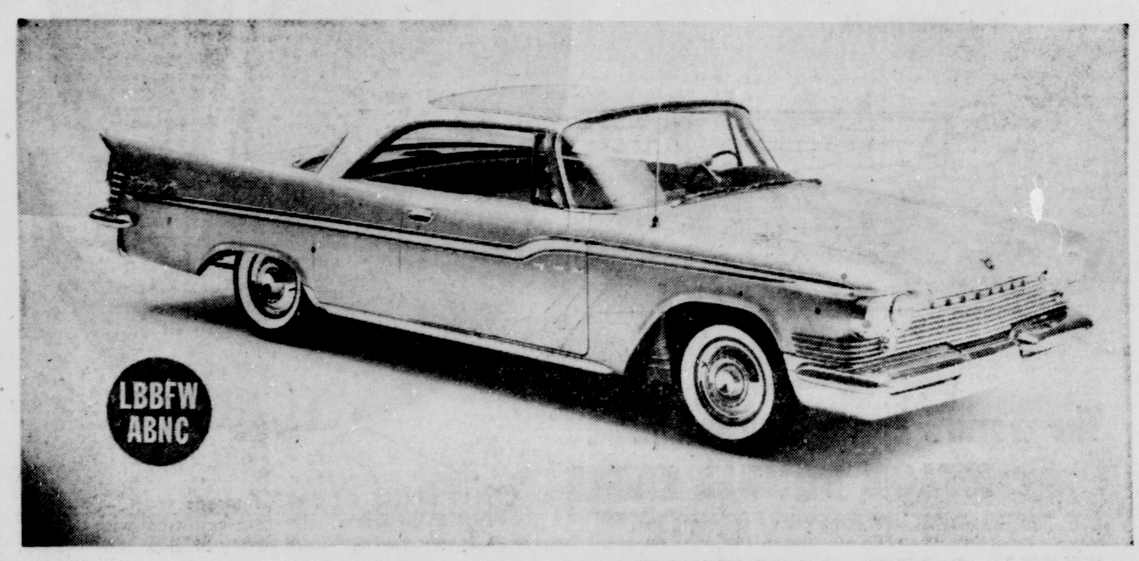

Live Better By Far With A Brand New Car

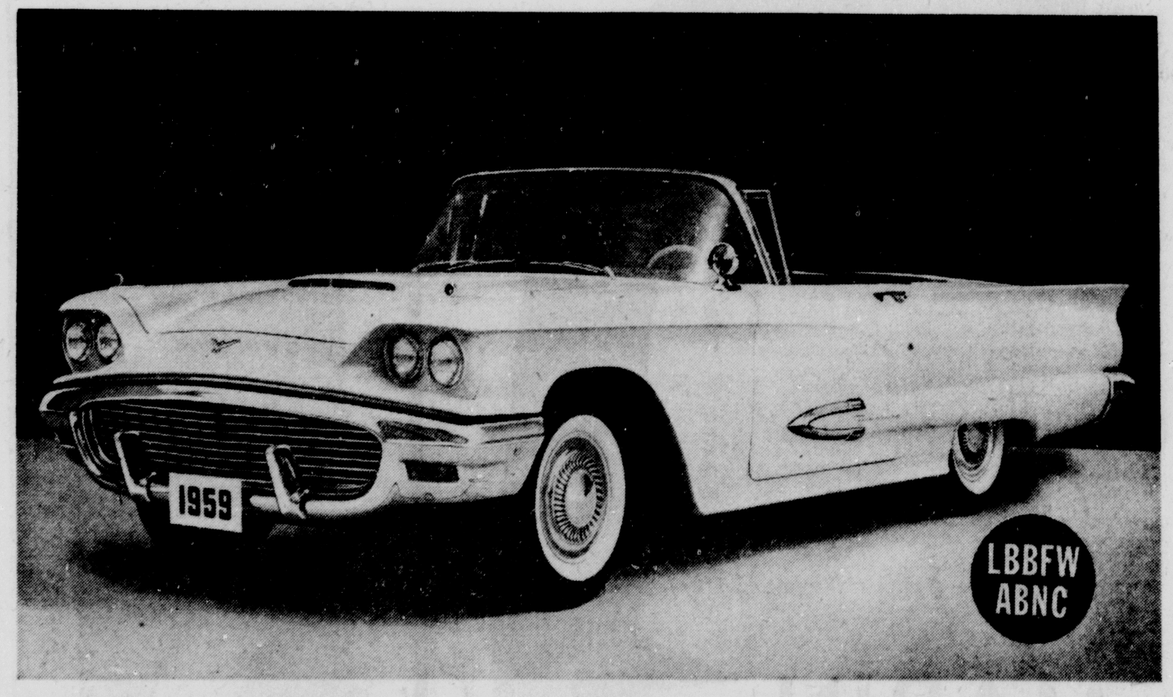

DESCENDANT OF PIONEERS — Buick, which pioneered hardtop styling a generation ago, offers for 1959 this LeSabre series hardtop as a worthy descendant of those pioneers. Along with styling advances, the '59 Buick features engineering improvements throughout. To learn the reputation of this car, "Ask the man who owns one." Buick distributors in Marin are Stenstrom Buick Co., 520 Francisco boulevard, San Rafael, and Pierotti Buick Co., 505 Miller avenue, Mill Valley.

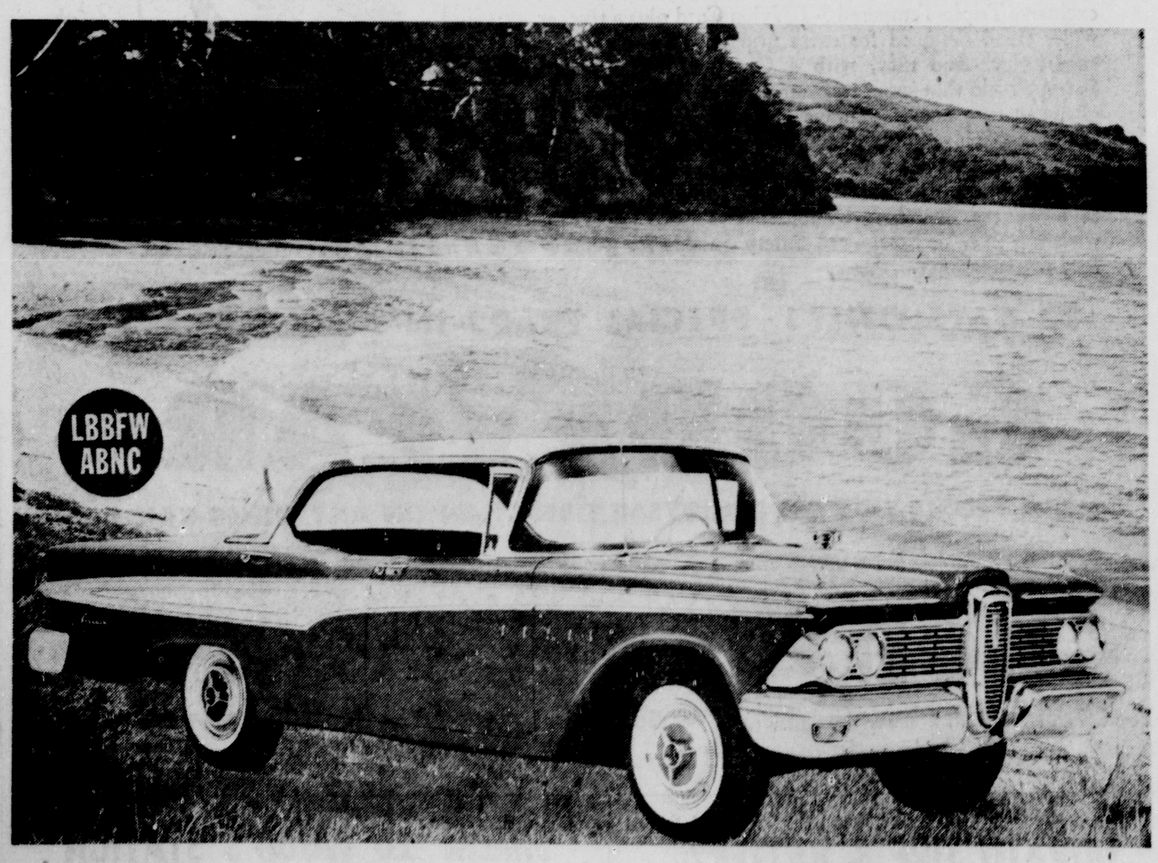

TOPS IN CHRYSLER'S LINE — The Chrysler Corp.'s contender in the fine car field is the Imperial, here shown in Le Baron model. The regal imperial is handled in Marin by Jack L. Hunt, 1714 Fourth street, San Rafael.

SPORTY WINDSOR HARDTOP — Chrysler's Windsor two-door hardtop is another of that firm's reasons for enthusiastically backing the "Live Better by Far With a Brand New Car" campaign. Marin distributor of the Chrysler is Jack L. Hunt, 1714 Fourth street, San Rafael.

T-BIRD FOR '59 — The Thunderbird, practically a modern classic car, offers this four-passenger model in its 1959 line, which features new interior and exterior styling and "under-the-hood" improvements to add its weight to the "Live Better by Far With a Brand New Car" promotion. Marin distributors are Ames Ford Sales, Third and Irwin streets, San Rafael; L. J. Dervin Ford Co., 7401 Redwood highway, Novato, and Tamalpais Motor Sales, Blithedale and Sycamore avenues, Mill Valley.

THE NEW EDSEL — Shown against a background of one of Marin's favorite outing beaches on the shores of Tomales Bay is the flashy 1959 Edsel, one of the Ford Motor Co.'s many answers to how to "Live Better by Far." Distributors for the Edsel in Marin are Larry Brink, 433 Miller avenue, Mill Valley, and E. Bugna, Third street and Lincoln avenue, San Rafael.

STUDEBAKER'S 'SILVER HAWK' — The 1959 Studebaker, shown here in two-door "Silver Hawk" model, features improved styling inside and out, and a choice of brand new six cylinder or V-8 engines. Rossi Garage, Inc., at 622 Fourth street, San Rafael, handles the Studebaker line in Marin.

Play Ball! Giants Vs. Cards Tonight

Teams Open In St Louis; Antonelli On The Mound

ST. LOUIS (AP) — San Francisco's Giants, a pennant threat in their second year on the West Coast, tangle with the rebuilding St. Louis Cardinals tonight in their National League opener.

Manager Bill Rigney nominated left-hander Johnny Antonelli to pitch against the Redbirds' Larry Jackson and sticks with his new keystone combination of rookie Andre Rodgers at short and former shortstop Daryl Spencer at second.

A year ago the Giants started their first season away from New York auspiciously when Spencer and rookie first baseman Orlando Cepeda homered and Ruben Gomez shut out Los Angeles 8-0 at San Francisco's Seals Stadium.

This time Gomez isn't around, having gone to Philadelphia in the trade that brought Jack Sanford, Saturday night's starter, to the Giants. Cepeda went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year and one of the power men of the club.

Many feel the acquisition of pitchers Sanford, Sam Jones and Billy Muffett has boosted the San Franciscans well ahead of their potential of 1958 when they surprised with a third place finish behind Milwaukee and Pittsburgh.

St. Louis, a sixth place choice in the pre-season concensus, opens under new Manager Solly Homus and with ex-Giant Bill White expected to add power. White came in the trade that sent Jones to the coast.

Jackson, 6-foot 2 right hander, compiled a 13-13 record last season, but without too much luck against San Francisco. On consecutive days in Seals Stadium, he lost games in the final innings, once with a walk and again with a hit batsman. His lifetime mark against the club is 5 victories and 8 setbacks. The Giants have beaten him more times than any other club.

Antonelli, the ace of the San Francisco staff, notched 16 triumphs in 1958 against 13 defeats. Through his career he has experienced trouble against St. Louis with a 12-17 mark. He was 3-2 against the Cards in 1958 while Jackson was 1-3 against the Giants

S.F. LINEUP

Rigney stuck with the expected opening game lineup: Third baseman Jimmy Davenport, a rookie last season; left fielder Jackie Brandt, centerfielder Willie Mays, Cepeda, right fielder Willie Kirkland, Spencer, Rodgers, catcher Bob Schmidt and Antonelli.

The St. Louis batting order will have a new look—Homus surprised with his announcement that Stan Musial, long the No. 3 man, would hit fifth and White third.

Homus said "This way I've got four men in front of Stan and all can run. I figure him and Ken Boyer to knock in the most runs."

If the opposition decides to walk the seven-time National League batting champ, Solly pointed out, he has a good man in Joe Cunningham batting behind Stan the Man.

Homus named his batting order: Blasingame 2b, Cimoli cf, White 1b, Boyer 3b, Musial lf, Cunningham rf, H. Smith c, Grammas ss, Jackson p.

OPENERS

Look Who's Leading Standings

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Washington and Cincinnati were living it up in first place today and they can both dream, can't they—until nightfall, anyway.

Generally picked to finish last, the Senators broke on top by beating Baltimore, 9-2, in the American League opener at Washington while the Reds got off winging with a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh in the National League inaugural at Cincinnati.

Don't go stampeding the Washington and Cincinnati offices for World Series tickets yet, however, because the standings could be revised tonight after all the remaining clubs swing into action.

YANKEE OPENER

Casey Stengel goes after his 10th pennant in 11 years when the Yankees open their season against the Red Sox at Yankee Stadium. Bob Turley, who was 21-7 last year, has been tapped to oppose Tom Brewer, 12-12 last season, and a crowd of 25,000 is anticipated.

Cleveland opens at Kansas City where another crowd of 25,000 is expected to watch Gary Bell (12-10) start for the Indians against Bob Grim (7-7) for the Athletics.

Chicago is at Detroit in the only other American League game scheduled. Southpaw Billy Pierce (17-11) will pitch for the White Sox and Jim Bunning (14-12) for the Tigers. Approximately 40,000 are expected to be on hand.

Southpaw Warren Spahn (22-11) will do the pitching for the Braves when they open defense of the National League championship against the Pirates at Pittsburgh. A crowd of 34,000 will cheer on Pirate ace Bob Friend (22-14).

DRYSDALE STARTS

Los Angeles is at Chicago with Don Drysdale (12-13) and Bob Anderson (3-3) ticketed to start before 25,000.

Two night games are on tap. San Francisco will be at St. Louis in one of them and Cincinnati at Philadelphia in the other. Joe Nuxhall (12-11) will try to keep the Reds in first place when he faces Robin Roberts (17-14) at Philadelphia where a crowd of 28,000 is anticipated.

Vice President Richard Nixon, subbing for President Eisenhower, was among the 26,850 who saw the senators lick the Orioles at the nation's capital yesterday.

Tam Natators Get Back On Win Road

Tamalpais High School's varsity swimmers, who had a 30-meet victory streak broken by Redwood Tuesday, started another one going yesterday when they beat Vallejo and Montgomery in a triangular meet at Tam. The hosts rolled up 99 points to 32 for Vallejo and 27 for Montgomery.

Sid Glover and Gary Dahl each won two events to pace the victory. Glover copped the 50-yard freestyle in 25.4 seconds and the 100 free in 57.6 while Dahl took the 100 backstroke in 1:05.6 and the 150 individual medley in 1:44.3.

Other Tam winners were: Rick Snow, 400 free, 5:00.8; Mark Cory, 100 butterfly, 1:05.7; Kirk Laurie, 100 breast, 1:15.8; 200 medley relay (Harrison, Laurie, Lucas, Emmerson), 2:01.8; 200 free relay (Coulon, Cory, Emmerson, Mosher), 1:43.4.

ORIOLES' TRIPLE PLAY TOPS OPENING DAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Add Baltimore's unprecedented triple play against Washington in yesterday's American League inaugural to the long list of opening day highlights and thrills down through the years.

Probably the greatest opening day feat of all was Bob Feller's no-hitter against Chicago in 1940. Or Walter Johnson's 15-inning 1-0 triumph over Philadelphia's Ed Rommel in 1926.

Detroit scored 10 runs in the ninth inning to beat Milwaukee 14-13 in the 1901 American League opener. Cleveland outslugged St. Louis 21-14 in the 1925 opener. In 1950, the Boston Red Sox led New York 9-0 after five innings but the Yankees surged back and won 15-10.

Thursday's triple play by the Orioles was made in the fifth inning. After Roy Sievers walked and Bob Allison beat out a bunt, first baseman Bob Boyd speared Ed Fitz Gerald's liner and threw to Chico Carrasquel, doubling up Sievers. The shortstop relayed to Boyd before Allison could get back to first.

Top Swimmers To Vie In Tam Meet Tomorrow

Outstanding swimmers representing 18 schools will churn up the waters of Tamalpais High School's pool tomorrow in the invitational relays that may see a national record broken, according to Meet Director George Gustafson.

He said Sequoia High's 400-yard medley relay team will be out to break the national record. "They've already bettered the national time in practice, so I think they may better it again here tomorrow," Gustafson said. The official record is 4 minutes, 3.5 seconds held by El Segundo High.

Sequoia is favored to win team honors, Gustafson said, and he picked his own Tam Indians along with San Leandro, Berkeley, St. Ignatius and Redwood to score well.

Four North Bay League teams entered will be vying for a special league trophy. They are Tam, Redwood, Vallejo and San Rafael.

Heats will begin at 9:30 a.m. and finals at 1:30 p.m.

Admission is $1 for adults, 25 cents for student body card holders and 60 cents for others.

Scribe Picks Pirates 1st, Giants 3rd

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Nobody asked me, but it's pickin' time again. So scan these forecasts:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

1. Pittsburgh Pirates. (They have the infield, pitching, power, combined with youth to win it going away.)

2. Cincinnati Reds. (Lots of sock and hustle.)

3. San Francisco Giants (Willie Mays and Daryl Spencer furnish the experience. A good pitching staff, headed by Johnny Antonelli, Jack Sanford, and Sad Sam Jones should be able to protect some of those Giant runs this year.)

4. Milwaukee Braves. (The defending champions are getting old; they can't expect a 20-game season from Warren Spahn for the 10th time; they will miss Red Schoendienst at second.)

5. Los Angeles Dodgers. (This team can't possibly play as badly as it did last year. It may even crack the first division.)

6. St. Louis Cardinals. (Stan Musial still the greatest; and watch the explosive young Mr. Willie White, late of the Giants. He'll be a star.)

7. Chicago Cubs. (They have a fine pitching staff and the incomparable Ernie Banks — not much else.)

8. Philadelphia Phils—No comment.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

1. New York, 2. Cleveland, 3. Baltimore, 4. Chicago, 5. Detroit, 6. Boston, 7. Kansas City, 8. Washington.

Whales won't drink water. They get enough water out of their diet.

ROSSI, RYFF IN TV GO TONIGHT

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Paolo Rossi, who boasts a punishing left hook, goes against comeback-bound Frankie Ryff in a 10-round lightweight fight tonight in the War Memorial Auditorium.

The 30-year-old Rossi, ranked fourth, was favored to whip Ryff in the nationally televised bout (NBC) at 7 p.m., PST.

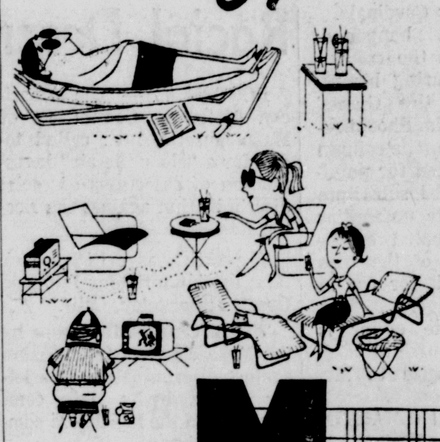

Ryff, 26, once gave up the game, but returned to the ring in 1958 when Barney Ross, former light weight and middleweight king, became his manager.

Giants' Sophomores Battle Jinx; Dodgers Key Man In 1959 Plans

CONNOLLY

Naturally during the time which has elapsed since the close of the 1958 season, I have mulled over a great many things I would like to have happen, and not happen, this season.

And mind you, I do not advocate reforms of any nature. The things I like to speak about are merely suggestions.

For example: We're strictly a S.F. Giant rooter. If anybody is going to blow fumes down the necks of the Giants we want to do the blowing.

We hope that Orlando Cepeda, the rookie of the year last season, doesn't lay an egg during the 1959 season. It has happened before and it can happen again. All we ask is that the chirpers who write baseball do not go into a tailspin the first few weeks of the season and begin predicting Cepeda is inheriting the sophomore jinx.

We won't say a word about Andre Rodgers, the new Giant shortstop being a fizzle until after he makes the first trip around the circuit.

RODGERS, if he flips, could turn the Giant hopes upside down. In my book he is the key man of all the planning Messrs. Stoneham and Rigney and even old fuzzy Eddie Brannick, secretary, ever could imagine.

Without Rodgers clicking the Giant setup calls for a new shuffle. It could mean that Daryl Spencer be sent back to shortstop and Danny O'Connell to second base.

Or it could even mean that Eddie Bressoud, whom the Giants are beginning to think might be a ball player, would be restored to his rightful spot at shortstop. Eddie originally was bought to play short, but he has done everything else but since he joined the club.

Cepeda, of course is the key guy on the offensive of the S.F. club. If he doesn't hit, he is a lead pipe cinch to become a ground keeper ticket taker, or usher. He can't do much else around a ball park.

JIMMIE DAVENPORT, the least suspected of the 1958 crop of rookies, could be the biggest 1959 surprise. I wouldn't be surprised at anything Davenport does. If he does it, it will be first rate.

Now if bouquets are to be passed out there is a big hayroped catcher named Bob Schmidt who hits 'em a mile when he hits 'em and who isn't too speedy or too slow. He is in between. Schmitty has great possibilities. He could be a star, and he could be a monumental flop. If he can't hit he can't play regularly. So his only salvation is to slap the horsehide consistently or take a slow boat to China.

You can't do anything but rave about Willie Mays. He deserves it. But Willie, in my book, isn't a great clutch hitter. By that I mean he gets his hits in bunches. But he isn't the Golden Boy in the clinches. At least he wasn't last year. He hit great and he hit often but not regularly in the clutch or with runners hugging third and second base.

JACKIE BRANDT, at leftfield, I like. He hasn't rattled the boards too often, but he looks, acts and talks like a helluva player. Jackie runs and hits equally well, but he has something else. He has the courage needed for success. And he rises with the occasion. Watch Brandt in the clinches in 1959.

And that brings us up to Felipe Alou, Willie Kirkland and Leon Wagner, the fearsome group of rightfielders.

None of the group is what you might call an astute student of baseball. But all three have a tremendous catch-as-catch-can style.

ALOU is tired right now. He played too much winter ball and the training season was too long for him. He'll get over it.

Wagner is a problem. He can hit 'em as far and as hard as anybody. He doesn't even bother to know whether he is batting against a southpaw or a righthander. He hits 'em anyhow. But, he isn't a fancy dan fielder.

And Willie Kirkland, for my money, is a big improvement over 1958. He is a much better outfielder, a better hitter and when he smartens up could make anybody wish he was on their ball club.

DON'T BLAME CONNOLLY FOR 'BULLPEN' ERROR

Through no fault of his own, "Bullpen" author John J. Connolly was placed in an embarrassing situation when the Independent-Journal rolled off the presses Wednesday afternoon.

His column mentioned Ray Jablonski and Bill White in the Giants' plans for 1959. Everyone—well, almost everyone—knows "Jabbo" and White have been traded to the St. Louis Cardinals.

Here's what happened: Connolly wrote the column as a "filler" during his recent visit to the Giants' training camp in Phoenix—before the trade. The column was not scheduled for publication, but an I-J substitute editor—obviously unfamiliar with the baseball world—dragged it out of the files and processed it for use in Wednesday's paper.

The substitute editor is now taking a course in baseball. We apologize to Mr. Connolly.

Essay Contest Winners Told

Wayne Wagner, seventh grade student at Nicasio School, won a $25 bond for his essay entitled: "How can we conserve Marin's natural resources for tomorrow?"

Michele Royston of Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley won $10 and Carla Pincini of Fairfax Central School won $5 in the essay contest sponsored by the auxiliary of the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Honorable mention went to Cindy Nation of Edna Maguire School and to Cathy Carr and Doriel Dwyer, both of Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo when winners were chosen last week. Mrs. Regina Murray and Mrs. Bea Jones were co-chairmen of the contest. Al Giddings, Dr. Edward Day and Mrs. William Allison served as judges.

Red Sox Accused Of Racial Descrimination

BOSTON (AP) — The American Veterans Committee of Massachusetts, Inc., called today for a "clear the air" investigation of assertions of racial discrimination against the Boston Red Sox.

The club was criticized for farming out infielder Pumpsie Green of Berkeley, Calif.

The AVC urged the probe by the Massachusetts Commission against discrimination in a letter signed by its state commander and the legislative committee chairman.

Boston's chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said after Green's option on 24-hour recall to Minneapolis of the American Assn., that the Red Sox practices indicate they "condone racial segregation and discrimination."

AVC leaders said in their letter that while they have been "loathe" to accuse the Red Sox of discrimination, the failure of the team to have a Negro player "does at the very least rouse suspicion in our minds."

Noting that Green could not live with other players in Scottsdale, Ariz., because of segregation in that spring training resort town, the AVC accused the Red Sox of "startling insensitivity to the feelings of a fellow human."

The AVC letter said the Red Sox are catering "to a form of discrimination and segregation that is entirely out of keeping with the laws and philosophy of this commonwealth."

Green, a Negro, played winter baseball and made a great start in spring training, but tapered off. He finished with a .327 average despite collecting only two hits in his last 19 times at bat. He was sent back to the Minneapolis farm where he hit only .252 last year.

Youth Injured When Trousers Catch Fire

Fred Silva Jr., 17-year-old San Rafael High School student, suffered second degree burns on his left leg Wednesday night when his trousers caught fire from a cigarette spark.

The youth had spilled gasoline on his clothing earlier while filling an auto tank at a service station, said his mother, Mrs. Fred E. Silva of 1528 Francisco boulevard, San Rafael. He was given emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital for burns extending from the knee to ankle.

Brennan, Leahy Mentioned In Navy Coaching Derby

ANNAPOLIS, Md., (UPI) — It might be "at least a month" before the U.S. Naval Academy picks a new head football coach to succeed Eddie Erdelatz, a source close to Academy affairs indicated today.

Although it was understood that present Navy assistant Dick Duden and former Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan were on the inside track, the selection still was wide open with several names figuring in reports. Among these were former Colorado Coach Dallas Ward and former Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy.

Erdelatz sprang a major surprise Wednesday when he suddenly resigned after nine years as Navy coach, climaxing a growing dispute with certain Academy officials over athletic policy.

Brennan, who was fired at Notre Dame last December, commented in South Bend, Ind., that "I don't know if I'm interested."

At Boulder, Colo., Ward, who was dropped as Colorado coach earlier this year, said he was "interested in discussing the situation with Navy officials."

Ruuska Sets Nat'l Record In AAU Swim

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The best women swimmers in the nation went after more records today in the second of the three-day women's senior National AAU Indoor Swimming and Diving Championships.

Three defending champions retained their titles yesterday, but one lost and a fifth gave up her title by default.

Sylvia Ruuska, 16-year-old girl, swimming for the Berkeley, Calif., YMCA team, set a new record in the 400-yard individual medley at 4:58.2. The old national record—set for this competition—was 5:03.5 and the American record for the whole country, was 5:00.8.

Carin Cone of the University of Houston team won the 200-yard backstroke in 2:02.2. It was her fourth straight.

Susan Ordogh of the Seattle Athletic Club retained her title in the 250-yard breaststroke in 3:23.3.

Shirley Stobs, 16-year-old from the Miami Shores Country Club, won the 100-yard freestyle in :57.7. The former champion was Chris von Saltza of the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club, who could not defend because of illness.

Irene MacDonald of the Los Angeles AC took the one-meter diving title. Miss MacDonald, 24-year-old diver from Hamilton, Ont., had 414.15 points.

Miss MacDonald, 5-feet 1 and 115 pounds, is defending champion in the three-meter diving, to be held Saturday.

Army Employee Will Get 30-Year Award

Herman F. Cane, 15 Bell avenue, San Anselmo, post engineer carpenter at the Presidio of San Francisco, today was due to receive a 30-year service pin at a retreat parade at the Presidio.

Cane served 30 years with the Army prior to starting his civil service job in 1943 at the Presidio.

'Best' Celtic Team Crushes Lakers In 4-Game Sweep

Combined AP and UPI

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—The Boston Celtics, champions of the National Basketball Assn. for the second time in three years, were hailed by Coach Red Auerbach today as "the greatest team I've ever coached."

The Celtics climaxed a four-game sweep of the playoff finals last night by whipping the western champ Minneapolis Lakers, 118-113. It was their 22nd straight win over the Lakers to extend a league record for such a streak.

Auerbach called his new champs "even better than the 1957 title club."

"It's more experienced faster, deeper, and a better shooting team," he explain- "And that was the greatest series I've ever seen any team play."

Laker Coach John Kundla wouldn't say the Celtics were better than his old Laker champions, but he admitted "they're a great ball club."

Frank Ramsey and Bill Sharman delivered the knockout wallop last night. Sharman, one of the gilded old pros of the NBA, rolled back the Lakers' last-stab overture early in the fourth period and Ramsey slammed the door for keeps in the waning minutes.

It was appropriate that the former Kentucky star should be in on the kill. Through 11 games of the Eastern and championship playoffs he had come off the bench time and again either to light a fire under the Celts or put one out that the opposition had started.

As a relief man he averaged nearly 24 points a game. "You were terrific," Auerbach told him in the dressing room. "I've never seen any one play under the pressure of playoffs like that."

Sharman bagged 29 points, Ramsey 24 and Tommy Heinsohn 23. Elgin Baylor, once more playing with the form that made him a terror in the Western playoffs, hit 30 for the Lakers.

Behind Vern Mikkelsen, Baylor and Bob Leonard, the Lakers kept it close all the way, trailing only 64-62 at halftime and 88-87 at the third quarter turn. Baylor prodded the Lakers into the lead at 95-93 early in the fourth quarter but Sharman and Ramsey took over here and escorted Boston out of danger.

SAFE BOATING

By HARRY HEIFETZ, Commander
U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 14

The following article on Motor Failure While Afloat has been provided by Melvin Moore, USCGA Past-Commander and now Operations Officer Mr. Moore is an expert in Electrical Engineering).

OUTBOARD FAILURE

(1) It may seem elementary, but the sad fact is that motors won't run without gas, and outboards use a great deal of gas; in fact to such a degree that new boatsmen are amazed to find after wearing themselves out trying to start a motor, that they can't start simply because they don't have gas.

So check your gas first in engine failure. Be sure your shut-off valve is open. Then pull out your choke and crank the engine. If the carburetor floods, you have gas, so let's look elsewhere for the trouble.

(2) Ignition: Most common failure results from faulty plugs. Remove and examine for moisture, oil or water. Either one will foul a plug. Check also for dirt across points. Clean the plug up and now check for cracked porcelain or incorrect gap. Most plugs are set for .030 and most boatsmen carry a gap gage in the tool box. If you don't have one, use the thickness of a nail file or dime. This will do temporarily. If the porcelain is cracked, put in a new plug.

If the plug is okay and still no start, check for the strength of the spark. Here's how: Fasten the plug wire to the plug and lay the plug down on the motor (the metal part). Now crank the motor. A good fat spark should jump the plug gap. If it doesn't, then the trouble is in your magneto.

There isn't much you can do about that while on the water. So better get the oar out and start rowing.

INBOARD FAILURE

Spark plug trouble and lack of gas can, of course, apply to inboards as well. But in addition, you have the following to check:

(1) Check the wire going to the ignition coil. This wire carries your electrical supply from the battery through the ignition switch. To check out this supply, remove the wire and quickly touch any part of the engine with it. If you get a spark, the electrical supply is okay. If you don't, we go to the next check point.

(2) Distributor. Remove distributor head and check the points for dirt and moisture and proper opening by turning the motor over with the starter. The point should open about .020. If the distributor or any part seems faulty, replace with new parts.

If the distributor is okay and you still can't start, try replacing the coil and condenser, because the chances are good that's where your trouble might be.

Now if you have done all these things and you still can't start, your trouble is deep seated and you had better get on home because unless you are a mechanic, you've gone about as far as you can.

All inboard boats should have a full kit of replacement parts aboard, including plugs, coil, condenser and distributor parts.

(3) Battery. This is the heart of your electrical system. Give it your best care. Keep it properly covered and in a secure case to keep it from bouncing when under way. Keep it very clean, for a trail of dust from terminal to plate can cause a constant leak. See that terminals are clean and tight. (A little soft grease around terminal posts helps). Check your water level and keep the battery up to full charge at all times. The power in your battery is like water in a canteen. You wouldn't venture out into the desert without a full canteen. So don't venture out on the water without a full battery.

(4) Wiring: Check all terminals for loose connections and corrosion. Check for worn spots in insulation. Such a worn spot can cause a short and can lead to serious trouble.

Now if you have gas and all your ignition system checks out properly, it is most unlikely that you can have motor failure.

One word of caution: Should you have motor failure, before you attempt any repairs, put an anchor out. This will insure you against drifting into dangerous grounds. You will also be more comfortable and so will your passengers.

If your motor failure occurs late in the afternoon, in addition to setting your anchor, try to attract the attention of a fellow boatsman so that if night threatens to overtake you, he can tow you into the closest harbor.

High scratch game went to Mike's with a nerty 767, while Jim's made the spotlight with a high series of 2152.

High game and high series awards went to Bill Gerton with a 244-632.

WITH FIVE weeks of bowling left, Bob's of Marin is out in front in the Thursday Men's Handicap. High game award is being held by James Fitzgerald with a 255.

JUNE 2 is the date the Marin Bowl's pre-modernization tournament will be starting. Some of the Bay Area's top bowlers will participate.

It's O.K. To Drink In Braves' Stadium

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee County Board has turned down, 13-10, a proposed ordinance that would prohibit baseball fans from bringing beer and liquor into the Milwaukee County Stadium, home of the Milwaukee Braves.

Fights Last Night

OAKLAND—Johnny Gonsalves, 136½, Oakland, outpointed Irish Bobby Scanlon, 136, San Francisco, 10.

LOS ANGELES—Gil Cadilli, 131, San Francisco, and Ernesto Figueroa, 130, Mexico City, drew, 10.

Gonsalves In Close Win Over Scanlon

OAKLAND (UPI) — Veteran Johnny Gonsalves reversed tactics and carried the fight to Bobby Scanlon at the auditorium last night to gain a narrow split decision in a 10-round lightweight bout.

Gonsalves floored the San Francisco fighter for a no-count in the seventh round, then put on a closing rush in the 10th to gain the nod in what was a close fight all the way.

Referee Vern Bybee had Gonsalves in front, 96-95, and Judge Eddie James voted for the Oakland boxer, 100-92; Judge Matt Zidich saw it even, 95-95.

BOBBY PENALIZED

Scanlon, who was penalized in the sixth for low blows, came on strong in the final stanzas after Gonsalves had built up a considerable edge during the middle rounds. Gonsalves carried the fight most of the way and offset Scanlon's fairly effective inside pounding by scoring well at long range.

Gonsalves entered the ring at 136, a half pound lighter than his opponent, a former student at San Francisco City College.

The victory left Gonsalves with a 51-14-3 record. Scanlon now has lost three of his 37 starts, including a pair of defeats at the hands of highly-ranked Paolo Rosi. He drew once.

A crowd of 4,079 paid a gross gate of $12,997.

In preliminaries:

Herman Henry, 194, San Francisco, outpointed Leon Hatcher, 197, San Francisco, 8.

Tommy Chan, 133, Oakland, outpointed Eddie Moore, 130, Oakland, 6.

The Lou Molino-Mike Martinez 6-round preliminary was canceled.

Fetchick Leads At Greensboro With 5 Under Par

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)—Mike Fetchick, 36-year-old Yonkers, N. Y., pro who has been in the PGA cellar since 1956, led a tightly-bunched field of 125 golfers into the second round of the Greater Greensboro Open Tournament today with a five under par 66.

Fetchick, who carded a 35-31—66 on four birdies, an eagle and a bogie, was one up on Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., who came in yesterday with a four under par 33-34—67 on the 6,630 yard par 71 Starmount Forest Country Club course.

Art Wall, fresh from his Masters victory in Augusta, Ga., last week and admittedly feeling just fine "mentally and physically," was one of the first day 69 shooters.

Mile Race Fatal To Prep Runner

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 16-year-old boy died today, eight hours after he collapsed while running in a mile race at a high school track meet.

Joseph Taylor of suburban Haverford Township had gone a quarter of a mile in the race when he suddenly ran off the track and fell on the grass.

An emergency operation was performed at Frankford Hospital to massage his heart, but he died five hours after the operation.

His track coach, Neil Buckley, said Taylor was given a physical examination last September and was found to be in good condition.

Portland Coach Quits

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Les Leggett quit today as Portland State College's head football coach. Leggett said he has accepted an identical post at Adrian College in Michigan. His teams compiled a 6-11 record during his two years here.

Four Marin Yachtsmen To Challenge Atlantic

By BETTY FROST

Suffering from wanderlust these mild spring days? Four young Marin yachting enthusiasts have found the solution to such yearnings and will undertake a year of adventure topped off with an Atlantic crossing by sailboat.

Bob and Jane Van Blaricom of Sausalito are in England by now searching such ports in the south of England as Bristol and Southampton for a suitable yacht for the voyage. They will be joined shortly by Philip Price of Mill Valley and Bob Peterson of Sausalito.

The four sailors, all associated with Corinthian Yacht Club, plan to cruise to Portugal and Spain, thence to the Baleario Islands in the Mediterranean Sea.

IN THE late fall they will cross the Atlantic, touching the Canary Islands and the Barbadoes and expect to do some cruising in the West Indies. Plans are for Christmas in Puerto Rico, then across the Caribbean to the Panama Canal. Sailing up the Pacific Coast, they anticipate their arrival in San Francisco about April 1960.

Civil engineer Bob Van Blaricom, 29, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Blaricom of Mill Valley. His wife, Jane, 26, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Lindley of Carmel. Phil Price, a student at the College of Marin, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price of Mill Valley. Bob Peterson recently brought his yacht Calypso from Portland to Sausalito. He is now in Denmark on a visit and will join the Van Blaricoms at Southampton.

All four of the adventurers have had deep water sailing experience. Van Blaricom has crewed on three trans-Pacific yacht races to Honolulu and was a member of the crew of Hugh Jack's Altura which won the 1957 race in her division. Bob and his wife Jane, Peterson and Price sailed the Altura back from Honolulu to San Francisco Bay after that race. Ever since, the four Pacific shipmates have been dreaming of conquering the Atlantic. Now that dream is on the way to becoming a reality.

EAGER SAILORS of the 110, Snipe and Thistle fleets will meet Sunday at Richmond Yacht Club for the final races of the "pre-season season."

Morning and afternoon contests will be held under the sponsorship of the Snipe fleet and with the cooperation of the Richmond club. The races will be followed by a dinner at the yacht club and presentation of trophies for the series of races.

March 22 found 34 boats from the three fleets contesting. Jack Quinn of Belvedere was race committee chairman. Gordon Nash's Javelin and Bob Klein's Ugh were tied on points for the day, with Javelin winning on the basis of shorter elapsed time. John Jenk's Lolly won the Snipe races, and leads in the series. Gil Smith's Kiltie was the Thistle Class winner.

Gaels Name Two Bears On All-Foe

MORAGA (AP)—St. Mary's Gaels named two members of the NCAA champion Californit Bears to their all-opponent basketball team.

Named yesterday were Darrall Imhoff and Denny Fitzpatrick of California, Jim Rogers, Idaho State; Leroy Wright, College of the Pacific, and Sterling Forbes, Pepperdine.

St. Mary's won the West Coast Athletic Assn. crown. On its all-league opponent squad, in addition to Wright and Forbes, were Dave Klurman, COP, Frank Sobrero, Santa Clara, and Fred LaCour, USF.

Little Leaguers' Mothers To Meet

An informal meeting of mothers of baseball players in the Mill Valley American Little League has been set for 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the Mill Valley American Legion building, according to Mrs. Frank Christ, chairman.

Mothers of boys who have signed for this summer's training school are also invited, Mrs. Christ said.

Adopting the name "American Legion Benchwarmers," the mothers are hoping for a large turnout to discuss ways of promoting a successful season, according to Mrs. Christ.

Marin Joins Fight On Abalone Bill

Marin County Board of Supervisors has joined North Coast sportsmen in their fight against opening the area to the commercial take of abalone.

In a formal resolution noting the greater economic value of recreational fishing for abalone in the region and terming the commercial operation a "danger to this valuable recreational and sports resource," the board this week went on record in opposition to Assembly Bill 826 which would open the now closed coasts of Marin Sonoma and Mendocino counties.

The supervisors' action lent additional impetus to a decade-long sportsmen's fight against opening the area to commercials.

URGES DEFEAT

Pointing out that sportsmen from throughout California visit the North Coast area to pick abalone and that the majority of those utilizing the resource are non-residents, Dr. Gail Adams, Marin Rod and Gun Club president, urged sportsmen throughout the state to immediately contact their legislators in opposition to the measure.

Organizations already on record in opposition, in addition to the Marin supervisors and sportsmen, include the California Wildlife Federation, Associated Sportsmen of California, Sportsmen's Council of the Redwood Empire, Sonoma County Sportsmen's Council and Mendocino County Sportsmen's Council.

Brian London Due In N.Y. Tonight

LONDON (AP)—Although he said he did not yet have a visa, Brian London was expected to fly to New York tonight for his world heavyweight title bout with champion Floyd Patterson at Indianapolis May 1.

The former British heavyweight champion arrived last night from his hometown, Blackpool, in northern England.

In New York promoter Cecil Rhodes Jr. said he had filed the formal papers necessary to get London a visa.

TRACK-FIELD BATTLE

Cal Challenges Mighty Trojans

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Coach Brutus Hamilton's well-balanced University of California track and field team knocks its head against the powerful University of Southern California squad tomorrow in what could prove an exciting but one-sided meet here.

Although California was given no chance of upsetting the Trojans who are undefeated in 81 straight dual meets, the Bears were expected to provide close competition in many events.

The track program drew the most attention in three events. These are the 220 in which USC's Bobby Staten will compete against Cal's Willie White, the 440 in which the same Staten will meet Jack Yerman and the 880 featuring California's Jerry Siebert.

The probable return to duty of Angelo Coia in the sprints freed Staten from the 100-yard dash to go in the 220, 440 low hurdles and a relay leg—an ambitious effort by the sophomore from San Diego.

Although the track events may be close, Southern Cal had a huge edge in the field competition in which only Cal javelin thrower Dick Johnston was given a chance for a first place.

The USC-Cal meet is the afternoon attraction at Occidental's Patterson Field where OXY engages UCLA in a morning dual meet. The OXY-UCLA affair was expected to be much closer than the afternoon feature.

Thomas Hobbles Back To Classes

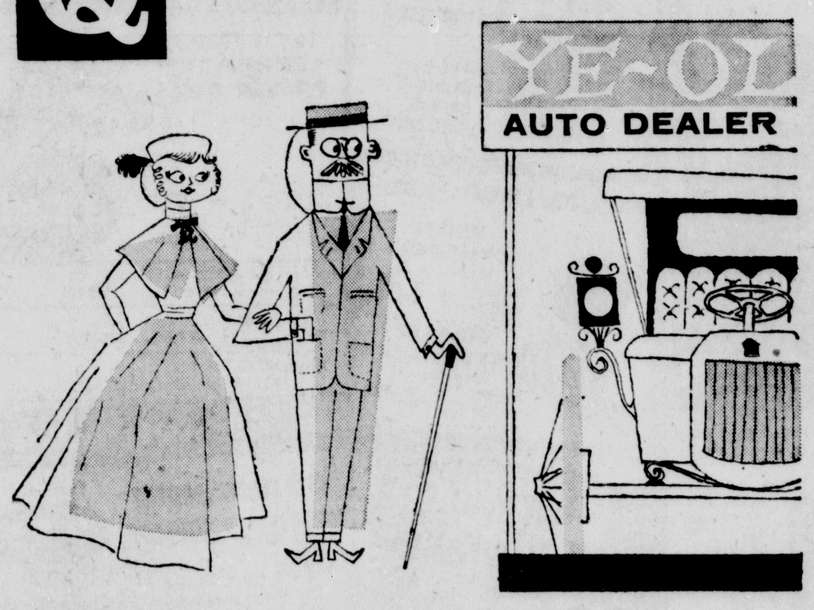

BOSTON (AP)—World champion high jumper John Thomas hobbled to college classes on crutches today, free of a weighty cast on his left foot.

The cast was removed yesterday from the takeoff foot of the 18-year-old Boston University freshman, who stirred the track world with a record leap of 7 feet, 1¼ inches during the indoor season. He injured the foot March 24 in an elevator accident.

State Asked To Hold Up Printing Texts

S.F. Firm Says It Can Do Job At $700,000 Saving

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state Printing Office today was asked to hold up on plans to print almost three million textbooks.

The state Board of Education made the request after a San Francisco bookbinder said he could manufacture an English textbook for $700,000 less than the state Printing Plant.

The Cardoza Bookbinding Co. said it could print the books for $1,973,170 while the state printing office's estimated cost is $2,679,800.

ONLY STATE

The firm's president, George L. Levison, told the board yesterday, "California is the only state now printing textbooks."

He gave the board a check for $10,000 to show that his bid was made in good faith. Chairman William L. Blair returned the check and said the board would ask the attorney general's office whether the bid could be considered.

William G. Werner, an Alameda publisher whose term on the board expired this year, went into the question of bookbinding at last month's meeting.

ECONOMY MEASURE

Werner proposed private binding of state textbooks as an economy measure.

State Printer Paul Gallagher said such a proposal is "outrageous."

Mrs. Seymour Mathiesen of Fresno asked, "Why is the state in the publishing and binding business?"

Gallagher said California has been printing its own books since 1872 and does the job cheaper than any private firm could. He said the state plant turns out six million paper bound books and six and three-quarter million hard-covered books a year at an estimated saving of five million dollars.

"I don't think the state belongs in the business," said Mrs. Mathiesen.

WHY DIFFERENCE?

Raymond J. Daba, a board member from San Mateo, asked:

"Why is there a $700,000 difference on one series of books? We're talking about three quarters of a million dollars and shouldn't just sit here shaking our heads."

The board unanimously accepted Louis H. Heilbron's motion to look into comparative costs of textbooks.

"I further move," said Heilbron, "that the books under question be halted at the state plant during the investigation." The board agreed.

First colonial name of Williamsburg, Va., was "Middle Plantation," then (in 1632) a palisaded outpost.

NEWS VIEWS

By LEON C. SMITH

With taxes going up all over the country for all types of government our elected officials, especially in Washington, are surprised they're not getting more "quit spending our money" letters. Many of us complain to each other that our public officials aren't interested in economy. But when it comes to letting our Congressmen, Supervisors or Councilmen know about it we're as silent as an oiled mouse. Most mail officials receive comes from folks who want handouts . . . so the idea grows that we all want something that doesn't include economy. If we really support our representatives . . . both they and we might be happily surprised. If you don't want anything, your public officials will be doubly happy to hear from you.

A touring Detroit man drove away from a service station and didn't realize he had left his wife behind till he was 30 miles away. We hope he was man enough to go back for her. The hope of every used car buyer is to find a car with under 10,000 mileage at a ridiculously low price. The way cars are built today a car of that kind is still almost a new car. What we offer are extra clean used cars, many of them with very low mileage, and every one worth more than the price we ask. Since our skilled mechanics put them in excellent condition we are able to give every one of them a top guarantee. You can't find better buys anywhere. J. E. FRENCH CO., 1542 Fourth St., San Rafael. Death Penalty Ban Set For Assembly Debate

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A bill to halt capital punishment in California for eight years is ready for Assembly debate.

The Ways and Means Committee moved the compromise measure along yesterday without recommendation.

Sponsors claim the eight-year moratorium would show the death penalty is not a deterrent to murder.

Assemblyman Lester McMillan (D-Los Angeles), author of the bill, first proposed permanent abolition of San Quentin Prison's gas chamber.

He said he decided to try for the eight-year moratorium when colleagues told him outright repeal couldn't pass.

As it now reads, the bill would prohibit judges from imposing the death penalty and forbid all executions for eight years. Persons convicted of capital crimes would be sentenced to life in prison, ineligible for parole for 10 years.

The Assembly is expected to take up the bill next week.

Training Set For Discussion Leaders

Six weekly training classes for leaders of Great Books discussion groups will be held at the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael beginning Monday at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by James Sena of the Great Books Foundation.

The volunteer leaders function as moderators rather than teachers or subject matter authorities, he said. The Monday night classes will each last from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

THEY MIGHT ADVERTISE IT IN LOW DIVES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Hubert Garrecht, president of the Milk Industry Foundation, says dairymen might sell more milk if a way could be found "to make it a little more sinful."

"The trouble with milk is that it is too much taken for granted," Garrecht said last night at a meeting of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Assn. "It lacks the glamor of tobacco and alcohol."

Marco Polo reported that salt was used as small change money in Tibet. In modern times it is still used for the same purpose by some African tribes.

PLACING LEIS is Mrs. Juanita Curley for Capt. and Mrs. H. N. Williams who are among the cast of 22 of the skit. Cove Players Plan 'Angle Adventure'

Both professional and top-notch amateur talent will be featured in "Angle Island Adventures," the hilarious skit planned as entertainment by the Cove Players for their annual costume dance, to be held Saturday, April 18, from 10 p. m. to 2 a.m. at the Southern Marin Recreation Center on the Tiburon Peninsula.

"Angle Island Adventure," is an original production inspired by the theme of the dance, "A Night in the South Pacific," with book by Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wineman and Mrs. John Stevens and music composed by Mr. Wineman. Al Trobbe has contributed special musical arrangements featuring his band, as well as Frank Hagerty, well known San Rafael and San Francisco professional guitarist. Brian McQueen will perform as "Angle Island's native drummer.

Among the musical numbers will be Mr. Wineman's original song, "Endlessly," which will be sung by Don Pickett and Mrs. Melvin Gautier, the "native duet."

The plot of "Angle Island adventures," revolves around Gertrude Klotch, who wins an island with a jingle. This role will star television personality Dorris Carr. Playing opposite her will be Michael Graham, veteran Cove Players actor.

Others in the cast, which totals 22, include Sam, the promoter, played by Ed Brash; and Jake, his native man Friday, played by George McKegney. Capt. H. N. Williams will play vice-president of Vice-President Lines. Capt. Williams' wife, Harriet Williams, is appropriately cast as his wife. Mrs. Stevens will make her farewell Cove Players appearance as the lead native girl, as she and her husband are moving to Spokane.

Tourists to "Angle Island," will perform as a quartet and include some of the best known voices on the Tiburon peninsula: Les Blackmore, Ed Drechsel, Hamilton Holt and David Teather. Mrs. John Barger will join in the harmony as she also plays a South Seas tourist.

One of the highlights of "Angle Island Adventures," will be a Puili dance featuring Mesdames John Del Mar, George Goddard, Gerald Frellson, Wilfred Curley, George Berticevich, William Ellingsen, Pickett, Willard Anderson and Cork Meyers. Mrs. Frellson, who has been a professional dancer of considerable note, will be featured in a solo hula. Special choreography for the traditional Polynesian Puili dance was composed by Cecil Preble of the Junior Ballet Theater in San Anselmo, assisted by Mesdames Pickett and Curley. Costumes for the cast have been designed by Mesdames William Hart and Sam Mercer.

The entire production has been under the direction of Mrs. Wineman, entertainment chairman for the dance, assisted by Mrs. Stevens and Miss Rita Graves. Mrs. Nelson Shreve is dance chairman.

Designer's Skirt Features Scenes From Sausalito

Patricia Rogers of Sausalito has a designer's bent. From Cape Cod, Mass. to Hamilton, Bermuda, to Venezuela, she has sketched commercial resort items for sale to tourists in these areas.

Tiki Shop in Sausalito's Village Fair will handle exclusively the most recent design. This hand-painted skirt has sketches of Sausalito's waterfront between borders of black.

Sausalito natives who recognize the design may have seen a Patricia Rogers sketch depicting Balboa in southern California or Palm Springs on California's desert.

Designing has become a venture for the entire Rogers family. Each member helps to assemble and finish the garments.

THE 'GIANTS' of spring fashion open their season on Tuesday when Fashion Focus honors the Non-Commissioned Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton Air Force Base at Rickey's Rancho Rafael. Two models in the show from the NCO Club will be batters, left to right, Mesdames Robert Shaw and John Dolan.

Fashions To Go Big League At Tuesday Focus Luncheon

The Giants open their spring series at Rickey's Fashion Focus luncheon next Tuesday, the Giants of spring fashion, that is. "Luana's Goes Big League" to pitch a fast and fashionable game with 24 spring hits from swim wear to formals and no fashion errors.

Batting 1.000 will be Tuesday's honored team, the Non-Commissioned Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton Air Force Base who never strike out when it comes to supporting Marin, their adopted community. They serve the Red Cross, Base Hospital and in the Family Assistance Center; they work with Little League, Youth Activities and the Sonoma State Hospital.

Lineup for Tuesday's fashion game will include Luana's Big League Classics, the shirt-makers, and separates, summer cottons and city knits, all indispensable additions to a wardrobe.

There'll be Big League Rookies, the fashion newcomers; sleek new swimsuits, colorful coordinates in polka dots, stripes and calico, curvy clothes with romantic waistlines.

"Big League Values . . . Little League Prices" introduce the third inning; the smart spring looks for around the clock smartness that prove "fashion is taste, not money."

Stealing home in the fourth inning will be the glamorous, feminine late-day looks that are a Luana trademark.

Assistant coach for the fashion game will be Tobie's of Novato who send the team onto the field in smooth, swish new hair styles.

Judy Russell's Engagement To Charles Youngclaus Told

A traditional candle-light ceremony at the recent Fresno State College Spring formal announced the engagement of Judy Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell of Madera, to Charles Youngclaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Youngclaus of Fairfax.

The annual dance was held at the Elks' Lodge in Sunnyside. During the intermission the lighted candle was passed among the girls. At the base of the decorated candle, rested a velvet heart encircled by lilies of the valley, in the center of which was the engagement ring. While the candle circulated, a poem was read by the resident counselor giving hints as to the identity of the engaged couple. Upon receiving the candle, Judy blew out the flame and received the ring.

The couple met in Chicago in 1956 when they both represented their state at a National 4-H Club Convention.

The bride-elect graduated from the Madera Union High School. She has been a 4-H member for the past 10 years and has been a state and national winner in the 4-H program. She was the 1958 California State Diamond Star and made a trip to Washington, D.C. for three weeks. While in Washington, she was named Miss Young America in 4-H. She received recognition in an article on her life in Seventeen Magazine. She is a sophomore speech major at Fresno State.

The future benedict graduated from the Sir Francis Drake High School. He was awarded the American Legion Award as outstanding boy graduate and was valadictorian of his class. He was recipient of the Standard Oil Scholarship and was a National Awards winner in the 4-H program, winning an all expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Convention in Chicago. He was named the outstanding 4-H boy in Marin County for 1957. He is presently a sophomore general agriculture major at Fresno State.

Class For Mentally Retarded To Continue

County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis agreed yesterday to continue operation of a class for mentally retarded children at the E Street School in San Rafael, on the unanimous recommendation of nine Marin school district superintendents.

Hollis had deleted funds for the class from the 1959-60 county special class budget because the county is directly responsible for only four youngsters under the "Point 1 program," as it is called.

He wanted the San Rafael schools to take over the E Street School class and let the county contract for education of its four youngsters. The San Rafael schools have eight youngsters in the program.

The 60 youngsters in the Point 1 program, having an I.Q. from 50 to 75, are divided among four classes on a county-wide basis by age. Besides the class at the E Street School, there are classes at Alto School in Mill Valley, Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera and Wade Thomas School in San Anselmo.

The county superintendent, who originally proposed hiring a second teacher for children in a county Point 2 program (I.Q. below 50), said his proposed special class budget would be changed so that the Point 2 class held at 27 Meadow drive in Mill Valley would be continued with one teacher but that double sessions would be held. Ten youngsters are now included in the Point 2 program.

Local school districts are required by state law to teach children in the Point 1 category, but are not required to teach the Point 2 children. Some of these mentally retarded youngsters are sent to Sonoma State Hospital. Others simply remain at home and if not entered in the county-sponsored class do not receive schooling.

The Marin County Administrators Assn. will meet again at 3 p.m. Monday at the administration building of the San Rafael schools to work out details for administering the Point 1 program in the county, said Harold R. DePue, chairman of the group.

Hollis will present a revised special class budget for 1959-60 to the county board of education when it meets at 8 p.m. Monday at the county schools building, 317 Fourth street, San Rafael.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—An unconscious Russian seaman was in critical condition at an Air Force hospital here today after a dramatic three-day rescue effort off the Aleutian Islands.

Evgenij Ivanovich Gneushev, 23, Vladivostok, was rushed to the 5040th Wing Hospital at Elmendorf Air Force Base yesterday from Cold Bay in the Aleutians by a Coast Guard plane.

Gneushev was injured several days ago when he fell into a hold on the Russian refrigerator ship Pischavaya Industriya which was with the Russian fishing fleet in the Bering Sea. The Coast Guard cutter Storis took the injured seaman off the Russian ship at Akun Bay and sped him to Cold Bay, where he was picked up by the plane and brought here.

Bill Would Let Prohibition Party Stay On Ballot

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to allow the Phohibition Party to keep its place on the ballot by reducing the vote requirement needed to qualify was given final passage by the state Senate yesterday.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman G. E. Brown, was opposed by Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles).

"Because this is the Prohibition Party," Richards said, "they come to us year after year to reduce the amount of vote needed to qualify and play on our sympathy.

"If we are to develop laws that do not encourage splinter parties then we must defeat this measure."

The bill reduced from 3 per cent to 2 per cent the amount of the vote polled to qualify for a position on the ballot.

San Geronimo Survey Report Given

The San Geronimo Valley has a school population that increases by about 12 or 14 pupils a year, trustees of the Lagunitas School District were told Wednesday evening.

Miss A'leen Runkle of the Marin County Planning Department reported on a survey made in the four valley communities of San Geronimo, Forest Knolls, Lagunitas and Woodacre.

The 352 elementary school children from these communities attend the over-crowded Lagunitas School which has three grades on double sessions.

The report included a map of the area showing occupied houses, vacant houses and summer homes.

Because their meeting on Wednesday was running longer than usual, the Lagunitas trustees scheduled a special meeting for April 23 at 8 p.m. to discuss next year's teacher salaries, a summer recreation program, curriculum, and disposal of its Woodacre school site.

County Crawling With Caterpillars

An outbreak of "forest tent" caterpillars has been noted in Marin County, causing residents concern for the foliage of their trees and shrubs, it was reported today by Thomas W. Peryam, county agricultural commissioner.

The tiny crawlers, recognized by their reddish brown stripes, have begun to hatch with the advent of warm weather. They build characteristic "web tents" over the branches and devour the leaves while they are advancing to cocoon stage. By that time they may grow to one or two inches long.

The pests may be eradicated by using sprays of DDT, malathin, chlordane or dieldrin, said the commissioner. Occasionally, the caterpillars will migrate to trees already sprayed, he warned.

Spring Art Exhibit To Open Sunday

"Spring Festival of Arts and Crafts" is the theme chosen for the exhibition opening at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Frances Young Gallery of the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Sponsored by the artists' council of the Marin Society of Artists, the show will feature paintings, sculpture, weaving and jewelry. All work submitted will be included in the show, a departure from the usual procedure of screening of entries. The 400 members of the Marin Society of Artists have been asked to each submit one sample of their work.

The society's spring membership meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday to elect a 12-member jury of selection and hear the report of the nominating committee on a proposed slate of 1959-60 officers. The meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Mae Ralston of Fairfax, society president.

Gertrude is the Teutonic word for spear maiden.

Foreign Car Fans Can See 'Em, Ride In 'Em

A ride in a $13,000 Mercedes-Benz 300 SL sport racer will be available to visitors at the Marin concourse de elegance foreign car show Sunday on the grounds of Mill Valley's Alto School, according to Mrs. Hughes Call, show chairman.

The flashy import is one of more than 60 foreign sports cars which will be on display, made available by both dealers and owners, Mrs. Call said.

AVAILABLE FOR RIDES

Several of the cars will be available for rides along Highway 101, the show chairman announced.

"One of the show features," Mrs. Call noted, "will be a pit stop demonstration with the glamorous but little-known British Lotus racer being used. Procedures followed at professional races will be demonstrated."

Josh Hogue, sports car columnist for the San Francisco Chronicle, will judge the entries.

Mrs. Call said the public will be invited to cast votes for "the car I'd most like to own," among those on display, with a prize being awarded to the exhibitor of the car receiving the most votes.

MOVIES OF RACE

Roving photographers will be on hand to take pictures of visitors in the cars. Movies of the 1958 Indianapolis Speedway Race will be shown. Refreshments will be available.

The show is scheduled to start at 11 a.m. It is being sponsored by the Tamalpais High School committee of the Experiment in International Living. Proceeds will go to sending Tam High student Ian Schiller to Europe this summer.

Visitors may reach Alto School by turning west from Highway 101 at the Alto overpass and traveling a few blocks from the intersection. Signs will direct visitors to the school, Mrs. Call said.

Nine-School Conference Slated Here

The Katharine Branson School in Ross will be the scene tomorrow of a conference of teachers and students from eight private non-denominational schools and Marin Catholic High School to discuss the application of religious principles to every day life.

The conference, presented by the Council for Religion in Independent Schools, with headquarters in New York, will feature Dr. John David Alexander of San Francisco Theological Seminary at San Anselmo as main speaker.

The conference, to discuss "The Role of Religion in An Age of Conformity," will begin at 9 a. m. and continue until about 1 p. m., according to Mrs. R. M. Cleveland, coordinator of activities at Katharine Branson.

Schools represented, besides Marin Catholic High of Kentfield and Katharine Branson, will be Anna Head School, Berkeley; Katharine Del Mar Burke, San Francisco; Sarah Dix Hamlin, San Francisco; Menlo School for Boys, Menlo Park; Christal Springs, Hillsborough; Castelleja, Palo Alto, and Robert Louis Stevenson of Pebble Beach.

Reed Trustees To Eye Budget

The proposed 1959-1960 Reed Union School District budget will be discussed at Monday night's trustee meeting at the Tiburon boulevard district offices, according to Supt. Paul R. Stouffer.

Also on the agenda is the superintendent's report on attendance areas and pupils distribution for the coming school year. Administrative staff employment recommendations will also be given, he said.

An executive session is scheduled to follow.

NEW FROM ALLSTATE ... the company founded by Sears

Sickness, Accident and Hospital Insurance

—to protect you against today's rising cost of medical care
—to help replace income you lose because you're sick or hurt
—to help provide for your family if you're killed in an accident

New Selector Plan lets you choose the exact type and amount of protection that's right for your needs ... and your budget!

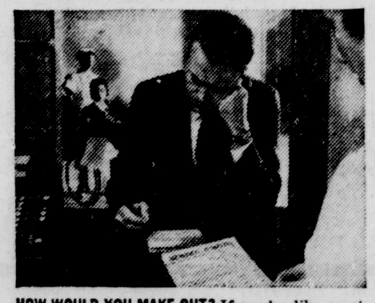

Most families are not aware how inflation has watered down the value of the policies they now have. Too many take for granted that having "some insurance" or workmen's compensation is all the protection they need.

It is a tragic fact that today only 1 family in 10 is financially protected against the ruinous costs of lingering illness or serious accident.

Too many people risk going along with what they have because they assume that rising costs have priced adequate coverage beyond their reach. But now Allstate's Accident and Sickness Insurance helps you solve these problems—at a cost you can afford.

WHAT THIS NEW POLICY BRINGS YOU

Here, in one flexible policy, you will find a broad selection of top-value coverages. You can select exactly the protection you need to close the gaps in your present insurance—at surprisingly little cost. This sensible plan lets you buy only what you need, without waste or duplication—pays in addition to any insurance you may now have. Or if you have no protection, it can be used as a sound basic plan.

HOW WOULD YOU MAKE OUT? If you're like most people, your present insurance would cover only one-third of your expenses, should sickness or accident strike.

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE WAYS ALLSTATE'S NEW PLAN COULD FIT YOUR NEEDS:

YOU MAY NOW HAVE An employer or group plan that would pay you only for a few months after accident or sickness disables you.
YOU SHOULD HAVE An Allstate coverage that will pay you a monthly, tax-free income so you can provide for your family's living expenses while you are disabled. (Maximum: 5 years if totally disabled from sickness; for life if totally disabled from accident; 6 month limit for partial disability.) You can select the amount of income protection you want up to $400 a month for total disability—up to $200 a month for partial disability.

YOU MAY NOW HAVE A basic hospitalization plan which may pay you for only a few weeks.
YOU SHOULD HAVE An Allstate coverage that will begin paying after your present policy stops, to give you protection against in-hospital expenses of serious, drawn-out illness or disability ... that pays 75% of hospital expenses for as long as 2 years for each accident or illness for each member of your family. (Maximum payment: $5,000 per person.) Or you can strengthen your basic hospitalization plan with an Allstate coverage that will pay daily hospital expenses in addition to the protection you now have.

YOU MAY NOW HAVE Insurance with relatively few benefits—that pays only a small part of the actual costs of a long, lingering disability.
YOU SHOULD HAVE An Allstate coverage to help you with the major expenses of doctor, surgeon (including specialist) care, nursing costs and many other medical services.

YOU MAY NOW HAVE Savings that could keep your family going for 6 months or a year if you were killed in an accident.
YOU SHOULD HAVE An Allstate coverage that pays $15,000 cash if you are killed in practically any type of accident. Pays in addition to any other payments made by this policy.

It's human nature to put it off ... but don't. The average man is disabled 17 times during his lifetime. Facing odds like these, you owe it to yourself to get the facts.

TO MY FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

(THE CITIZENS OF SAN RAFAEL)

On the eve of the municipal election I am a candidate to succeed myself as Chief of Police and I am deeply grateful for the enthusiasm with which my candidacy has been received.

For the past 16 years I have consistently endeavored to conduct my office in the best interest of you, my employers.

Law is enforced as infractions come to my attention or the attention of my officers to whom I am grateful for tireless effort and support.

We are all proud that San Rafael, for a city of it's size and population is remakably free from major crime.

Retained in office, I pledge a continuation of the law enforcement policies that have been so successful in the past.

I assure each and every one of you that you will always find me and my staff ready to serve you competently and willingly.

I have carefully refrained from indulging in personalities during this campaign and have insisted everyone working in my behalf follow the same rule.

• I urge every one of you to go to the polls MONDAY, April 13th.

I earnestly hope to receive a decisive expression of your awareness of my proven ability as your Police Chief.

With all my heart, I will be as grateful for your continued support as I am for the invaluable assistance and encouragement I have received during my campaign.
